

Two Club Members Spend Day in Lansing

CRANBROOK VILLAGE—Two local members of the Southfield Republican Women's Club attended morning and afternoon sessions of the Constitutional Convention at Lansing on Tuesday of last week. They are Mrs. Charles Crowther and Mrs. Loren C. Spideman, Jr., both of Pleasant Trail.

A busy household is that of the Lansing YWCA, the women had time to chat with George Romney, Richard Van Dusen and Henry Woodliff, Birmingham area delegates. The Southfield women made the trip with the Birmingham-Troy branch of the club, sponsors of the event.

Incidentally Mrs. James Neither, secretary and Mrs. Michael J. Rutenberk of Webster is treasurer and Mrs. Hollis is planning in the mood, sister Hollis is planning to observe her seventh birthday with a party. The big day is Dec. 15.

And in these rooting are Bill Gayle, 10; Dana, 8; and Baby, 4.

The Eugene McIlvann of Rock Creek Drive will be putting their tree up early this year and the house will sparkle with Yale decor well ahead of Santa's arrival.

Reason: they'll be entertaining nine couples Dec. 15 at a Christmas party that will feature a buffet dinner, games and gift exchange. The party will be part of the fun too.

And the Robert Smiths are looking forward to a bright and especially cheerful holiday season with their little girl in the starring role. She's Penny Sue, recent addition to the Smith family, who is six years old and a real heartbreaker with her big brown eyes and Auburn hair.

Plans are in the making for a visit to Rotunda in Dearborn to see the Christmas display and Penny Sue is busy, meanwhile, working with the National Bank of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lewis of Spring River Road are the proud parents of a new baby boy, born Nov. 29. He is Erik David and his big brother is Karl Randall, 2. Erik is a senior system analyst with the National Bank of Detroit.

Another new baby boy is Jeffrey R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hiltner of Rock Creek Drive, who was adopted by the Hiltners on Nov. 9. A bouncing two-months old now, he is keeping things lively at home and is just about ready to reach for the Christmas tree ornaments.

Lots of excitement at the regular bridge club meeting of local gals who met at the home of Mrs. Thomas Bonino, Nov. 29. The above-mentioned Erik Lewis decided to make his debut a little early—thus his mama missed her bridge game but sure carried the honors.

Miss Karen Robinson celebrated her eighth birthday Saturday with a guest for every year on the calendar. The boys and girls on the guest list enjoyed lunch and games. Karen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Robinson of Fall Hills.

Travel 'Caravan' Style On Joint Golfing Holiday

LATHRUP — Voted "an extremely nice place to visit" is Pinehurst, N. Carolina and the golf who says so is Mrs. Charles Russell of Summit, who spent 10 days there recently with her husband and five other couples. The group stayed at Royal Oak, on Detroit and then there were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clague of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harris of Bloomfield Hills.

The Russell's returned Nov. 26. The trip down and back, incidentally, was made by car—caravan style.

The Ernest Hodas family spent the recent holiday weekend in Morristown, N. J., visiting his mother and two sisters. The children, Kenneth, Bobby and Barbara, enjoyed a bit of sight-seeing and their first trip to the Empire State Building in nearby New York. The trip was returned—caravan style.

The American Foundation for the Blind provided direct consultation for 583 agencies and 243 communities in 30 states, District of Columbia and Puerto Rico last year.

The Lathrup Lions have picked an appropriate locale for their annual Yule Party. The place: Holly—where they will meet at the Ilwaco Gardens and also for cocktails and dinner. Reservations are limited to the first 50 Lions and their guests—just contact Jerry Stone at city hall, is the good word.

Santa Claus will arrive in Lathrup at 3 p.m., Dec. 17—in front of Lathrup School. The place: Holly—where they will meet at the Ilwaco Gardens and also for cocktails and dinner. Reservations are limited to the first 50 Lions and their guests—just contact Jerry Stone at city hall, is the good word.

Although there were plenty of doe around—some 22 sighted in one day—Mr. and Mrs. Dick Mathias report no luck on their recent hunting trip unless you count the lone buck sighted by Mrs. Mathias.

The couple hunted in the Hubbard Lake area making this trip north with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Skilmore of Southfield.

Tomorrow is the last day to order fruit cakes from Southfield High choral members. If you want them in time for Christmas, the cakes are sold annually by choir members at a fund-raising project providing plenty of holiday oomph.

Mrs. Joseph Slavik opened her Whitshire home Friday evening to 25 guests in honor of her cousin bride-to-be Linda Black of Highland Park who will be married in January.

Mrs. Slavik was assisted by another cousin, Cathy Nanney. Table decor was pretty as could be with a parol decorated in blue lights at one table and a mum and centener another. Gifts were miscellaneous goodies.

Have you heard that Bill Buhl, son of Mrs. Ina Buhl, recently won a limited team bridge championship in Pontiac? He is a member of the Bridge Club at the University of Detroit and a junior in the college of arts and sciences.

Fifty-five friends and neighbors met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilson of Morningside recently for the concert at Oak Park Sunday in which their daughter Nancy played a solo role with the South Oakland Symphony Orchestra.

Among the guests at the buffet supper at the Wilson's home was Mascha Kottler, Nancy's teacher for six years. Mrs. Kottler was also present as well as Dr. Ira A. Schuller and Henri Nowco, conductor of the orchestra.

Nancy was still all glow, especially as she hunted a vase for the two dozen roses presented by friends Gay and Shelley Bellanger. She also received roses from the orchestra members.

The Art Mitchells arrived home Monday evening just in time for Mrs. Mitchell to make the city council meeting, tired but game. The Mitchells made the 28-day cruise of the Mediterranean area with the Eugene Hines of Santa Barbara, with ship stops at some
