

Skater Wins Honors At Ohio Competition

LONE PINE VILLAGE—Tim Wood, son of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wood of 4833 Mayflower, returned from Cleveland last weekend after winning first place in the junior boys' competition of the Eastern Great Lakes figure skating competition. This first annual sub-sectional was sponsored by the United States Figure Skating Association. By winning, Tim became eligible to go to the Mid-Western competition to be held in Denver in January.

Tim, 13, is an eighth grade student at Bloomfield Hills Junior High School. He is studying at Ronnie Baker of the Detroit Skating Club.

CHELMSLEIGH—Mr. and Mrs. George C. Booth of West Hartsdale Road and Mrs. Carl Whirl of Glenhurst have invited friends from the Birmingham and Bloomfield area for a cocktail-dance to be held tomorrow evening at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club.

DELLS OF BLOOMFIELD—Lafayette and Evansville, Ind., are Mr. and Mrs. James Margozant of Kellen Lane. With their two daughters, Carrie and Jessie, they visited their parents and saw many old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair Scanlon of Van Ness Drive entertained four couples at cocktails and dinner preceding the Highlanders Dance Club Christmas party held at Orchard Lake Country Club last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kritz of Nottingham Forest, Mr. and Mrs. William Thee of Birmingham Farms and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Holmes of Chalmers Lake.

GILBERT LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Karl Wiepking of Gilbert Lake land have returned to their home in Newton, Mass. after a 10-day visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hudson, and children Gardner, Lee, and Andrew, of Mark Hopkins Drive.

GILBERT LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Alexander of Lane Lake Road with son Jim spent the Thanksgiving weekend as houseguests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Weber of Cleveland, Ohio.

Monday evening Conant School presented its annual Christmas program. The program was under the direction of Mrs. Faith Werner, music teacher; Mrs. Phoebe Graf was the accompanist.

Grades one through six all sang Christmas songs and carols.

If you had a son in Cub Pack 1022. Upon opening it, you found you had to hold the paper over a candle in order to decipher the message. After deciphering the message, it read, "Please come to our magic show." The show was part of the November pack meeting held at Conant School last Thursday evening.

After the opening ceremony, the first pack inspection was held and Den Three walked off with the honors and a special flag. Paul Reid, advancements chairman, presented the awards, followed by the induction of new den chiefs.

THEN CAME the Cub "Magicians' Parade" and "The Great Woodcut and Company" who pulled everything out of his black bag including an unused spelling book and a freshly pulled tooth, once unknown.

Cubmaster Dick Souther conducted a "Sing Along With Dick" concert. Guy Stanford surprised the audience with his wooden friend and his contribution ability, and Romie, The Magician, closed the show after baffling young and old alike.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Girl Scout Troop 157, Bloomfield Village School, under the leadership of Mrs. Ruth Neff of Amberly Road and assisted by Mrs. Barbara Ludwig and Mrs. Edna H. Smith, held an investiture ceremony recently for Candy Renner and Barbara Patrosky. The other members of the troop received their World Pins and additional stars.

One of the projects of the troop in November was to prepare a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family in Birmingham.
