Garden Club Schedules Annual Yule Workshop

WESTCHESTER — The Westchester branch WNFPA will hold its annual Christmas workshop on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Boris Osojnak, Mrs. Brandt is a former president of the Bloomfield Farms branch WNFPA.

BLOOMFIELD SOUTH — Mrs. E. W. Harrison of south Cranbrook road was hostess Monday at a Christmas card party sponsored by the Maplebrook branch WNFPA. The garden club sponsors a card party each month for members and guests as a fund-raising project.

MEADOWLAKE — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Copeland of Crestway Drive entertained at a small dinner party last Thursday night. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Dierlamm, Mr. and Mrs. Michael DiMatteo and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Habrie.

FRANKLIN WOODS — Jetting back from Europe recently were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ford and their daughter, Mary, of Peckering Road. The Fords divided their two weeks in Europe between London, Paris, Rome and Madrid, spending about three days in each city.

BLOOMFIELD FARMS — Bloomfield Farms branch WNFPA will sponsor a civil defense survival course for residents of the Bloomfield Farms area. Classes will be held for eight weeks at the Walnut Lake School starting Jan. 9 at 7:30 p. m.

AT CENTRAL Branch YW, 2240 Witherell St. in downtown Detroit, a Christmas Mexican Fiesta is scheduled for 3 p. m. Children attending the fiesta will take part in the posada (a procession dramatizing Mary's and Joseph's search for "room in the inn"), and will also try to break the pinata filled with candies and hanging from the ceiling.

Have You Met . . . The new residents of 634 Woodale in Bloomfield Village? They are Dr. and Mrs. Jaap Delevie and their two children, Carey, 4, and Hugo, 7. When the Delevies left the Netherlands some years ago they came to Detroit where Dr. Delevie continued his studies at Grant Hospital.

After two years in South Carolina with the army they returned to Detroit and Dr. Delevie became a resident physician at Ford Hospital. He has now gone into private practice in Pontiac as a physician and surgeon in the field of ophthalmology. Mrs. Delevie enjoys gardening and the piano and Dr. Delevie likes to sail and play the violin in his free time.
