MAX M. FISHER

GEORGE RUSSELL

Founders Society Elects Two Residents Trustees

Two Birmingham area residents have been elected to the board of trustees of the Detroit Institute of Arts Founders Society.
 Filling vacancies on the board are George Russell, 283 Lone Pine Road, Bloomfield Hills, executive vice president-finance, General Motors Corp., and Max M. Fisher, 2751 Fairway Hills Drive, Farmington Township, board chairman, Aurora Gasoline Co.
 Russell is a director of General Motors Acceptance Corp. and Motors Insurance Corp., both GM subsidiaries. He also is a director of Ethyl Corp.

BEFORE BEING elected to his present position with GM in 1958, he held various executive positions on the corporation's financial staff. He was named treasurer of GM in 1961 and vice president in charge of the financial staff in 1960, when he also was elected to the board of directors.
 Russell is a member of the board of trustees of the Committee for Economic Development, also serving on its Research and Policy Committee. He is a member of the boards of trustees of Automotive Safety Foundation and Harper Hospital, chairman of the Highway

Economics Committee of the Automobile Manufacturers Association, and director of the Metropolitan Detroit Building Fund.
 FISHER is a director of Speedway Petroleum Corp. and American Petroleum Institute.
 General chairman of the 1961 United Foundation Torch Drive, he also serves as vice president of the United Foundation, president of Jewish Welfare Federation, vice president of Sinai Hospital in Detroit, a national chairman of United Jewish Appeal, vice president of Metropolitan Building Fund, and vice president of Hospital Council.

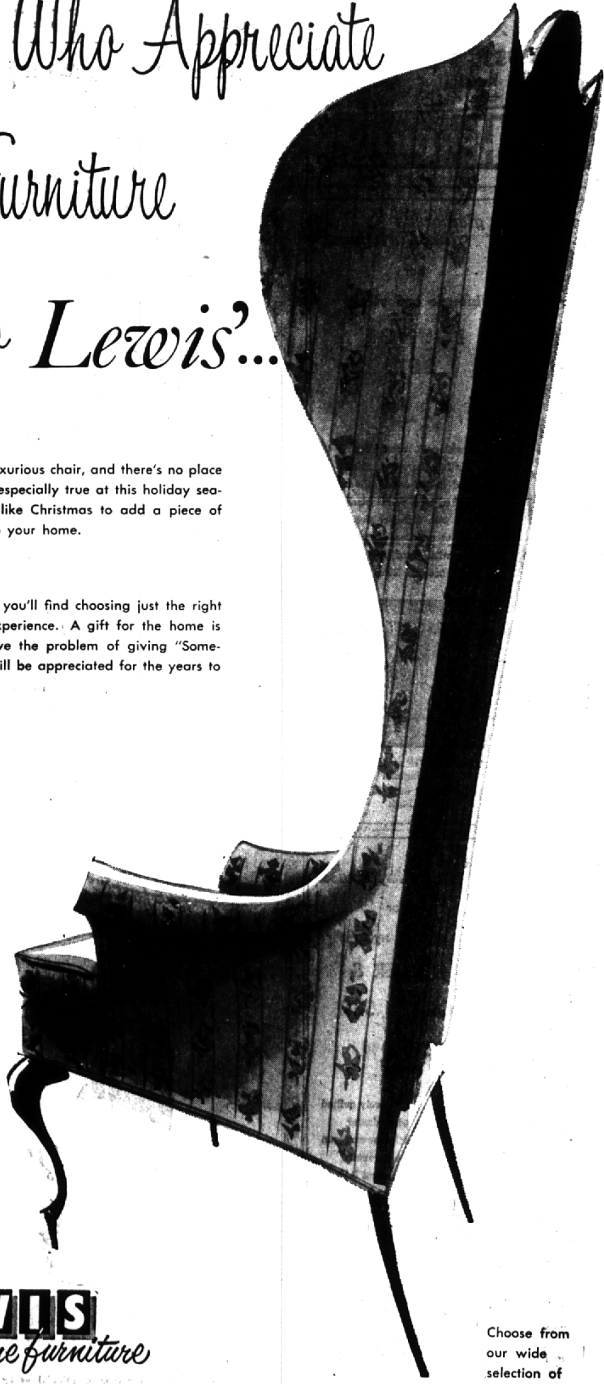

She: Did anyone ever tell you how wonderful you are?
 He: Don't believe they ever did.
 She: Then where did you get the idea?
