40 Beverly Youngsters Take Field Trip to Farm

EAST BEVERLY—Forty first-grade classmates of Debbie Lashby enjoyed a field trip to the Lashby farm near Marine City with some of their parents and teachers.

Not many of the children had seen farm animals "in person" before, and were delighted with the calves, only a few days old. Other thrills were pony rides, lunch, and time to play in the hay loft.

For several years, George Lashby of Verona Circle has donated a popular red and white suit before visiting the homes of many youngsters in the Birmingham area. This year his daughter Debbie will help pack his bag for the Christmas calls.

Mrs. Parker Brown and daughter Lisa are back home on Beverly Circle after spending the month of November in the south.

They were houseguests of Mrs. June Hope, whose home is in historic civil war country near Missionary Ridge, Chattanooga, Tenn.

They also visited Mrs. Jocelyn Hope, both of whom are Mrs. Brown's sisters.

A tour through Lines Famous Orchid House on Signal Mountain was a highlight of Mrs. Brown's trip — she grows orchids as a hobby.

The ladies of the Arlington Bridge Club had cocktails at Mrs. Robert Larson's before going on to Topinka's Town and Country House for lunch.

Those attending were Mrs. William Simpson, Mrs. Charles Ed Anderson, Mrs. Arthur Laffoon, Mrs. John Easterbrook, Mrs. Ed Smith and Mrs. Robert Larson.

Mrs. Fred Kraemer's two sisters, Mrs. Jack Keswick and Mrs. Jacob Mohl, drove in from Flint for a shopping trip and birthday lunch.

Just returned are Mr. and Mrs. Viggo Dyrberg of Buckingham from an extended trip through Gallinburg and the Smokey Mountains with a stop at the Indian Village. Driving on the Galway Gardens in Georgia they saw local textiles processed and inspected native crafts, followed by a tour through President Roosevelt's Little White House at Palm Springs.

The Dyrbergs continued their sightseeing in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., resting at the Sea Shore Hotel and taking a boat ride through the Everglades.

Bride-elect Barbara Ballis was honored Dec. 2 at a shower given for her by two of her close friends, Frances Carr and Becky Heliste.

Most of the guests were friends and neighbors on Kirkshire and after games and refreshments they played with ribbons and cards as Barbara opened her gifts. Attending were Mrs. Jack Hurd, Mrs. Ed Alnoworth, Mrs. Margaret Rowe, Mrs. Garnet Mills, Linda Mills, Mrs. Don Proctor, Mrs. Allen Marshall, Mrs. Harold Chapel, Mrs. Carl Hanson and Mrs. Robert Ballis.

Also present were Nellie Ballis, Mrs. Boyd Ballis, Mrs. Ruth Coons, Mrs. Don Tardell, Mrs. Kenneth Sawyer and Mrs. Charles Ballis.

WEST BEVERLY—The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Scandinavian Synodical Society met Dec. 6 at the home of Mrs. James Shank on Warwick. Besides the discussion of symphony affairs, the group added a festive touch with holiday decorations and refreshments.

In January they will have Walter Schrotl, of the Birmingham Conservatory of Music, as guest soloist on the program to be given at the Scottish Rite Cathedral.

When Mr. and Mrs. George Cope were in Chicago, they visited their daughter Nancy who was recently married, and is now Mrs. Erl Henderson of Forest Park, Ill.

A shopping trip and good visit kept them busy. Two Cope daughters and their husbands were home for Thanksgiving. Capt. and Mrs. Knopf and Kathy, and Mr. and the Castaways. Besides enjoying the wonderful sunshine, they enjoyed an exciting day deep sea fishing. Malloch was just recently appointed state representative for the Park and Tilford Co.

At the semester break, Bill Dahn was home from Ferris for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dahn of Lahser Road. Bill is a sophomore majoring in marketing and retailing in the school of commerce and finance.
