Insurance Man Sales Manager

The Ohio National Life Insurance Co. has appointed Ray J. Collins as sales manager for the greater Detroit area. Collins' agency is located at 189 Pierce, Birmingham. His appointment represents an expansion of operations for the Cincinnati-based company and is in addition to present Detroit area representation.

Collins has been in life insurance since 1953 when he was associated with the local agency of Equitable Life of New York. During that period he served as agent, director of training and education, unit manager, and, for the year prior to joining Ohio National Life, as assistant agency manager. Collins taught in the Battle Creek high school system for three years prior to entering the insurance business.

Bank Ups 3 B'ham Area Men

Three Birmingham men, Vernon M. Fitch, Daniel W. Burlingame, and Charles Zabriskie, Jr., have been promoted to new positions at Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit. Fitch has been appointed a trust officer and Burlingame and Zabriskie have been named second vice presidents.

Fitch, first named an officer of the bank in 1958, is a member of the Michigan and Detroit Bar Associations.

Burlingame was first named an officer at Manufacturers in 1960. He is president of the Chi Psi Alumni Association of Detroit. He is also associated with the Detroit Life Insurance and Trust Council, the Greater Detroit Board of Commerce, and the Grand Lake Country Club. He and Mrs. Burlingame live with their three children, Joan, William, and Nancy, on Walnut Hill.

Zabriskie, who first became an officer of the bank in 1958, is associated with the Detroit Junior Board of Commerce, the American Ordnance Association, The Economic Club of Detroit, and the Financial Public Relations Association. He and Mrs. Zabriskie reside with their two sons, Charles and Marek, on W. 14 Mile Road.
