

Couple Honeymooning In Acapulco, Mexico

Mary Beth Heinrich and Michael Joel Hermanoff were united in marriage Sunday at a ceremony at the Sheraton Cadillac Hotel.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Joseph Heinrich of Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Hermanoff of Birmingham.

The bride wore a gown of ivory silk tulle with an open neckline, short sleeves and an empire bodice of hand-corded alencon lace. There were side panels of matching alencon lace on the princess line dome-shaped skirt, falling into a chapel train.

HER HEADPIECE was a crown of hand-corded alencon lace with a fingertip veil of ivory silk illusion. She carried an Irvine crescent arrangement of phalaenopsis and Fleur D'Amour with trailing pearly-white stephanotis.

The bridal party consisted of the bride's sister, Mrs. Walter James Goldsmith as matron of honor; bridesmaids were Wendy Newman, Mrs. Michael Melet, Mrs. Donald Schermer and Sharon Newman. They wore tulle gowns of gowns of royal silk brocade with square necklines and short sleeves, fitted bodices and bell-shaped skirts. They wore tiny hats of royal blue feathers.

The matron of honor carried a corsage of white butterfly roses with a cluster of royal blue orchids and trailing green ivy.

The bridesmaids carried white butterfly roses and trailing green ivy. Best man was Edward Gableman and ushers were Walter Goldsmith, Michael Melet, David Akensay and Douglas Bloom.
