Tri Deltas
To Entertain
At Coffee

Birmingham Alumnae of Delta Delta Delta will honor their collegiate members who are home from college for the holidays at a Christmas coffee on Dec. 28. Thirty young Birmingham area Tri Deltas from colleges and universities across the country will gather at 10 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Lawrence S. King for the annual affair.

Mrs. Richard E. Diederich, vice president of the local alumnae group, is acting as chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements.

SHE is being assisted by Mrs. John Canavan, Mrs. Neil W. Hyde, Mrs. Murray Stewart, Mrs. Richard Mavis and Mrs. J. L. Toot.

Coffee will be served from a table centered with an arrangement bearing the sorority colors. Traditionally, each collegiate guest will receive token favors bearing the sorority emblem.

CHALMERS LAKE—The residents of Woodcrest Farms will join them at an open house tomorrow evening.

The William Burgess home on Hamilton Road was alive with laughter and giggles last Saturday afternoon. Granddaughter, Lark Lee Baker (age 6) invited 22 little girls from her kindergarten and ballet classes for a Christmas party.

Refreshments and games preceded the highlight of the party—the arrival of Santa Claus. Santa visited with each girl and gave each a gift and then all the girls joined him in singing some Christmas carols.

Guests were Tina Tyding, Kathy Doran, Debbie Roaberry, Wendie West, Jane Elizabeth Krenz, Deborah Auer, Pam Restrick, Sally Uley, Deborah Tyler, Barbara Sansone and Patti Sansone.

Others were Marjorie Grierson, Shelley Jones, Debbie Schumacher, Cheryl La Due, Holly McCollum, Tracy Shreffel, Cathy Coughlin, Mary Jo Pulte, Mary Topous and Janie McAuliffe.

Couple Exchange Vows In Episcopal Church

St. James Episcopal Church was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Sharon Lee Bell and John B. Huss. The Rev. Kenneth Gass performed the 1 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 176 guests.

The double ring ceremony was performed for the daughter of Mr. David W. Bell of S. Bates Street, Birmingham, and the late Mrs. Bell, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Huss of Ann Arbor.

MRS. JOHN B. HUSS

THE BRIDE appeared in a beautiful brocade princess gown with beauteous necklines and long traditional sleeves edged in seed pearls. A white satin crown veiled her bouffant French lace illusion veil. She carried white mums.

Mrs. Edward Bacon served as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Lacombe and Helen Hill. They wore red velvet gowns designed with bell-shaped skirts. Red satin crowns secured their bouffant red French lace veils. They carried white mums with attached red poinsettias.

Warren Huss served as best man and seating the guests were Robert Lacombe, Gary Schmidt and William Bell.

THE BRIDE'S aunt, Mrs. Ralph Bell, wore a blue and green brocade sheath with a white orchid. Mother of the bridegroom selected a gold and cream brocade jacket dress with a yellow orchid.

Following the ceremony, a luncheon was held at the Kingsley Inn. The couple are honeymooning in Quebec, Canada and will reside in Ann Arbor.
