St. Nick Visits Homes Of North Adams Tots

NORTH ADAMS — A blanket of snow and the special magic of Old St. Nick filled the air of North Adams several evenings last week. Children listened ever so hard for the jingle bells that grew louder and louder as Santa Claus approached their own houses for his "early personal call".

On Leonard Lane he made stops to visit little tots at the Michael Browns, the Fred Eckhouts, the Floyd Warblers, the Jack Swagers, the Bernard Jacobsons, the Peter Robinsons, the John Hubers, the Robert Wasons, the Robert Cratches.

On other evenings last week Santa slated trips to visit with other small fry in the subdivisions of Pine Hill, Charing Cross Estates and Hickory Heights, leaving with each child a tiny gold bell tied with a red ribbon.

The Al Bottlers of Avonhurst Drive will be entertaining neighbors and friends at their annual egg nog party on Christmas Day. It will be an afternoon party for the children as well as the grown-ups.

The Fred Cruses of Charing Way Drive began their holiday entertaining Saturday with an evening of Christmas carols, corsages for their guests and tempting goodies served around a sparkling gold and white Christmas tree.

The group, all of Charing Cross Hamlet, included the Marvin Lohrs, the Joseph Gillards, the Bud Carricks, the John Robertsons, the Tony Merchells, the Donald Swayzes.

Judith Boyer of Fox Run Drive will be home with her family, the Robert Boyers, for the holidays. Accompanying Judith, a junior at Michigan State, will be her fiancé, Bruce Campbell of Owosso, who is a graduate student at the university.

The James Bents of Rock Spring Road will be gathering with members of their family at the Bloomfield Village home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bagley Jr. on Christmas Day. Joining them there will be Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bent and Mr. and Mrs. William Bagley III of Birmingham, Mrs. Albert Terres of Detroit and Mrs. Kathleen Bent of Chicago, who will be staying on for a visit.
