

1961 -- In Review

Holland conceded defeat last week. Final results showed Adams, victor over 1,181 votes.

Bruce Cameron, chairman of the Michigan Council of Churches Committee at Seaholm High School, has announced that he and 13 other Seaholm students are bound for Europe this summer. The others are Gail Davison, Nancy Turner, Kathy Helper, Connie Stewart, Diane Lerming, Beth Boersma, Jerry Mason, Virginia Grison and Cheryl Brokaw.

Bloomfield and Southfield townships were among the top 10 communities in Oakland County with the greatest number of dwelling permits issued during the first quarter of 1961. Bloomfield ranked ninth with 76 permits and Southfield Township ranked 8th with 84 permits.

Stephen J. Farr, 12, of 739 Greenwood, has been chosen to represent Birmingham at the 45th anniversary of the National A.A. Safety Patrol Rally, Shenon is a patrol boy at Baldwin School.

Tod Williams anchored the Cranbrook School track squad with three individual first places Friday when the Cranbrook edged Ferndale, 67 1/2 to 61 1/2. The teams each won five firsts in individual events. One was a tie among three men. Cranbrook took the mile relay and the 880 relay was a dead heat.

Demery's Opens in B'ham

Birmingham's largest single one-unit department store, Demery's, opened for business in April. The two-story, $3 million structure besides handling the usual features, contains an S&H Green Stamp redemption center on its lower level. John W. Butler, owner of the building, recently announced the proposed construction of an eight-story shopping center on Hamilton behind Demery's. It will have the same architectural style as the department store which is located on Woodward and Hamilton.

GRATEFULNESS

The way we see it is in:—
The continuing interest you have shown in the merchandise we are presenting to you.
Your continued refusal to be interested in the occasional low priced, poorly designed items that have found their way to our shelves.
The amazingly small number of returns you have made for one, two or three reasons or another.
Your delightful minimizing of the errors we occasionally make in our deliveries.
The very small number of SPECIAL DELIVERIES you require us to make. (You know—"Well, my dog just won't eat grape nuts with an egg on top."—"What will my little sparrows do?"—"I'm having my hair done at that time and I don't dare leave the garage unlocked. Oh, well, send it next week.")
Your amazing promptness in responding to our monthly statements . . . (This, of course, excludes those who respond every 4 or 5 months).
The endless effort our staff makes in learning "to know what they are talking about"—be it fungus on a Bechtel Crab or scabs on a cunymus or "grass terrace cracks" . . .
Our choice of this charming and exciting community in which to develop a service.
Your remarkable flood of suggestions and ideas sincerely directed towards the improvement of our stock and our service.
The sly cleverness with which you inveigle us into sending 5 lbs. of bird seed (50c to San Francisco (postage 50c), the real home of birds and bird food.
Your acknowledgement of the fact that Florida is not perfect and your miniature poolde needs a sweater—to be mailed to Fort Lauderdale immediately.
Your child's need, in December, (because of school scientific programs requiring BEAN seeds).
The many purchases you make which are directed to the areas of mental patients, crippled people, lonely children and old people, and many others less fortunate than you and us.
Your terrific response to the lectures and demonstrations we presented this fall on the making of home decorations by Mrs. Frank Webb. (You may be interested in learning that on the two Saturdays in December YOU ate 116 dozen Christmas cookies and swallowed 16 gallons of coffee).
Our ability, now to THANK YOU for all of the foregoing and to wish you all a Very Happy and Peaceful New Year
