Visitors from Coast Arrive at Wick Home

MEADOWLAKE—There was a merry holiday air about the Charles H. Wick home on Mark Court with guests arriving from coast to coast right up to Christmas Eve.

First to come were Mr. and Mrs. George DeGroat with William and Alice who greeted in from Los Angeles on the 21st and stayed until Tuesday.

Next to arrive was the Wick's son Walter who is a sophomore at C. W. Post College in New York. He has just been elected "Mr. C. W. Post College." He arrived on the 22nd and immediately set about calling all his local friends to come for a big party which took place last night.

More Christmas guests of the Wicks were Mr. and Mrs. David Houghton and their son David who flew in Christmas Eve from Merick, Long Island.

With all the Christmas doings tucked away the Wicks are now preparing for a New Year's Eve party to which they have invited some 50 local friends and neighbors.

BLOOMFIELD FARMS—Holiday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ferrill of South Clunbury were their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliott of Cincinnati. They arrived on Friday before Christmas to stay for the holiday weekend.

The Ferrills will be hosts to some 24 neighbors on Saturday at a holiday brunch.

Kathryn Jean Calhoun Weds Frederick Noffke

Kathryn Jean Calhoun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Calhoun of Bellville Twp., Birmingham, became the bride of Frederick Noffke Wednesday afternoon in the chapel of Trinity Presbyterian Church, Birmingham. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Noffke of Alamo, Mich.

Dr. Glen Harris officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a short white brocade gown with a bouffant veil attached to a satin band. She carried Eucharist lilies and ivy.

HER HONOR ATTENDANT, Jean McClure of Ann Arbor, wore a moss green velvet dress with matching accessories. Her flowers were pink carnations.

Gary Rigler of Middleville was the best man. Guests were seated by Robert Smith and David Eldred of Alma and John Calhoun of Birmingham.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Calhoun chose a blue lace unusual and attractive doorway. The garden president, Mrs. Kenneth Bush, said the response was gratifying.

MRS. FREDERICK NOFFKE gown and matching hat. Her flowers were pink carnations.

A DINNER at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Noffke chose a beige suit with matching accessories for her wedding trip to Nassau. The couple will make their home in Sparta.

Ann Groesbeck Weds Roger Jerome Wood

Ann Marie Groesbeck and Roger Jerome Wood were united in marriage Tuesday at St. Louis Church in Mt. Clemens. The Rev. John P. Farrell, O.P., cousin of the bride, performed the noon ceremony.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. R. George Wood of Hillcrest Drive, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard V. Groesbeck Jr. of Mt. Clemens.

There was a large rose of chiffon with circular veils and carried white poinsettias and ivy.

Dennis Franklin Sheehy stood as best man and nabers were Philip Wood, Alfred Glasby, George Burkart Jr., Michael Fiajole and M. Richard Sheehy.
