

Hills and Lakes Club Formed in Bloomfield

BLOOMFIELD NORTH — A new club has been formed recently for those new to the outlying areas. It is called the Hills and Lakes Newcomers Club.

Mrs. Rex MacKercher was elected president; Mrs. Harry Winn, treasurer; Mrs. Russell Kurburg, secretary; and Mrs. M. C. Worster, social chairman.

The group was formed by the ladies, but social events will include husbands.

The first social event was a progressive dinner party Dec. 16. Eight couples got together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jacobs on Middlebelt Road for their first course. Mr. and Mrs. W. Fredrick Nibelink of Shore Hill Drive served the second course and Mr. and Mrs. Rex MacKercher of Wards Point Drive concluded the dinner with dessert and coffee.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE — Mrs. Jasper B. Reid of North Gleanery Road and her son Jasper B. Reid Jr. of Ann Arbor held their annual open house Christmas Eve afternoon.

Another houseguest of Mrs. Reid was her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. Truman Streng, who arrived in time for Christmas and will stay for the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Herman Fischer of Haddenfield, N. J., arrived Christmas day to be the houseguests of Mrs. Gardner Pardee of North Gleanery Road. The Fischers are Mrs. Pardee's sister and brother-in-law.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH — The young ladies of the ninth grade at Bloomfield Hills Junior High School invited their mothers to attend the Mother and Daughter Christmas Party held last week at the school. The party was sponsored by the G.A.A. Refreshments followed games in which both mothers and daughters took an active part.

CHALMERS LAKE — Mrs. Brooke Stanford of Wing Lake Road invited a few neighbors and friends in for coffee last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Elwood P. Engel of Franklin Road entertained 35 friends at a brunch last Tuesday.

Rudolph Glarner of Glarus, Switzerland arrived last week to spend the holidays with the Elwood Engel family. Glarner is a student at Davidson College.

WING LAKE — Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Keller of Wing Lake Road gave a Christmas dinner party recently for 22 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rumsey of Wing Lake Road asked Mr. and Mrs. Day Krolik of Lahar Road to be their guests last Thursday at the "Black Tie" dinner at the Detroit Athletic Club and the premier of El Cid at the Music Hall.

WESTWOOD MANOR — Some 60 friends gathered at the Kolly Road home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce M. Kenyon last Sunday evening at their Christmas open house.

Gretchen Kuschwa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kuschwa of Westwood Lane, will entertain 25 of her sorority sisters (Alpha Xi Delta) at a brunch today. Gretchen is spending her holiday from studies at MSU with her parents.

Thirty-eight friends dropped in at the Edward Pappert home on Kolly Road last Saturday for the cocktail party the Papperts hosted as a toast to the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kuschwa of Westwood Lane asked 10 couples to join them at an informal holiday buffet supper last Friday.

LONE PINE VILLAGE — Mr. and Mrs. C. William Carrick of Ranch Lane have just returned home after 17 days in Ft. Lauderdale. Accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaChance of (Carrick's mother), Mrs. Paul Carrick (Carrick's mother), Mr. Paul Carrick Jr. and son Rusty all of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Juhl and children, Karel and Lenard of Durand.

DELS OF BLOOMFIELD — Mr. and Mrs. Louis Weimar of Echo Road invited seven couples to join them in a cup of holiday cheer last Thursday.

LONE PINE VILLAGE — Pat Lamb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lamb of Ranch Lane, is home from MSU for the Christmas vacation. She entertained at an open house last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wittwer of Ft. Wayne, Ind. arrived last weekend to spend Christmas with their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lamb. Also joining in the family fun were Mr. and Mrs. Derall Wittwer and children Gail and Michael, also of Ft. Wayne.

WING LAKE — Mr. and Mrs. William Chickering are settled in their new home on Wing Lake Road and are entertaining at two open houses during the season. They are expecting about 50 guests each of the two evenings, Dec. 29 and 30.

YMCA Is Forming Boys Glee Club

Birmingham YMCA is forming a boys glee club. Club director Carl "Fritz" Krueger, who is a vocal instructor at Groves High, held auditions for boys in the 9th through 12 grades at 10 a. m. Jan. 6 at the YMCA, 400 E. Lincoln.

Boys will be selected on the basis of their musical ability and not on the amount of the training they have received, according to Krueger.
