

More sinfulness has been "mentally swept" from human thought and action under the duress of the sinner's pain and anguish than by intellectual methods alone. It seems that one can accept, for example, the logic of the Ten Commandments and the Golden Rule—yet in living fail to apply all of them to life. Indeed, "man's extremity to God's opportunity."

Ten O'Clock Scholars

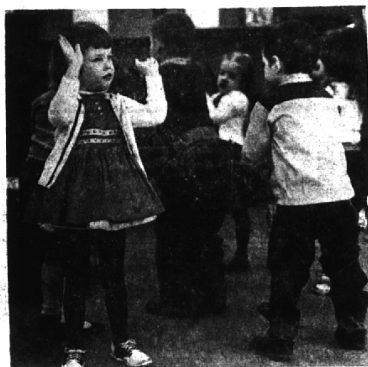

Jack Be Nimble

Arrive At Baldwin For Story Hour

At 10 o'clock every Tuesday and Wednesday morning, a group of youngsters between the ages of 3 and 5 toddle in at the Baldwin Public Library for a Story Hour. Mrs. Dorothy Burns of Ann Arbor, formerly of Birmingham and Mrs. Charles Burch of Birmingham started the pre-school session several years ago. The classes which run in a series of six weeks are open to Birmingham residents.

Mrs. Burch is assisted by Mrs. David Wilder, Mrs. John King and Mrs. Donald Howarth. The morning entertainment includes stories, singing, games and finger-play.
