Here's a Treat: Skiing at Music

By CINDY GEISLER
Special Writer

Come Friday evening, girls at Bloomfield Country Day School will have an unusual treat, as guests of Mr. & Mrs. Jordan H. Stover III, parents of Sunday a student at the school.

The Stovers have invited all students of the school, their escorts, the girls' parents and the faculty to a skating party to be held on the lake right by the school. Hours are from 8-11 p.m.

Japanese lanterns will be used around the skating area on the lake and stereophonic music will be provided for the skaters. Refreshments will be served and anyone and everyone is anxiously looking forward to a tremendous evening of fun.

ON JANUARY 22, Nancy McCuen, Sandy Stover, Carol Handline and Sandra MacPherson, together with Mrs. Gunnar Karlstrom, attended the Severo Ballet performance. All the girls marveled at the beauty and splendor of the ballet and felt it was most exciting to have such a ballet in our own city.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS HIGH

Two Victories Spark January Weekend

By SUE HALLAS
Special Writer

The weekend of Jan. 20 brought two important athletic victories to Bloomfield Hills. In the first South-east Michigan Interscholastic Ski Meet, sponsored by an area newspaper, the boys' competition was won by a BHHS trio, Butch Blum-enfeld, Bob Clark, and Bob Cum-mins.

Batch, with timings of 31:35 and 32:47 had the fastest combined runs of any contestant. Bob Clark had the fastest single run of the meet, with a time of 24:45.

And although the close girls' race, went to Wallied Lake, BHHS's Deanna Satterfield took first place in individual competi-tion.

Totals were: Butch—58:35 sec.; Bob Clark—1:05:73; Bob Cummins—1:28:4; Deanna—1:09:2; Pam Morse—2:10:55 and Pam Walker—2:39:52. Team totals were: Boys—29:41, and girls—31:39.85.

IN BASKETBALL, Bloomfield Hills beat its oldest and "arch-est" rival, West Bloomfield, by a score of 47-39. High point men were Art Traczyna with 16 and Bruce Bil-lings with 11.

BY THIS TIME exams are over, except for a few nasty repercussions, and schedules have been duly re-shuffled. Things are kind of sleepy in the hills right now, and seems to be following Hip VanWinkle and "Papa in his cap" in setting down for a long winter's nap.

However, as is indicated by the athletic teams above, all is not dead or dying by any means, just hibernating.

FEBRUARY LOOKS infinitely busier. AFS club is planning an AFS day for Feb. 10, and will host exchange students from the area. Highlights will be an assembly, dinner at individual homes.

Students Finish Tests; Plan Brief Holiday

By BOB HUGHES
Special Writer

The last mid-year examinations will be given today. Many students, having no further obligations at school, are taking a brief holiday until Monday, will make use of this brief rest period in various ways.

Some will use it for skiing and related pleasures, others for re-gaining sleep lost in last-minute study sessions and a few for making an early start on the second semester's work.

The varsity teams will have little time for relaxation, however. The hockey team will continue daily practice throughout vacation, while the basketball and wrestling teams meet their first league opponents, Shady Side of Pittsburgh, on Saturday, at Cranbrook.

IN AN ASSEMBLY Jan. 23rd, Captain Barry Shapiro announced that the Cranbrook Debating Team had won the Interlakes League competition for this season.

Captain Shapiro and Dick Sen-ter, debating the negative, gained four wins. Louis Beet and Mike Barone, debating the affirmative, gained three wins, losing one de-bate to Southfield.

The Cranbrook team will now go to the state elimination tourna-ments where they will continue to debate the year's topic: It is: "Resolved, That the United Nations Should Be Substantially Strengthened." Much of the credit for the success of the team was ascribed by Shapiro to Coach W. R. Usella.

ON THE SOCIAL side, the re-peated successes of the Friday night skating parties, and the oc-casional informal dance after the movies, have provided considerable welcome entertainment.

THE TEAM sent by Cranbrook's lower school to the "Quiz 'Em on the Air" competition which was televised on Jan. 22nd, overcame the team from Evergreen Lutheran Junior High School by a score of 400 to 200.

Team members David Craig, Bob Aughenbaugh, Eric Muthhead, Peter Elliott and alternate Frank Kolbert gained a stereo tape re-corder for the school as a result of their efforts.

Varsity Club Plans Sports 'Hall of Fame'

By VEE VOELKER

Holding their first meeting of the year recently, the Varsity Club, under the direction of Mr. Carl Lemie, elected officers and decided on the program for the second semester.

Craig Morze was elected president; Tom Sweeney, vice-president; Jack McFee, secretary; Bob Nadal, treasurer; Ted Egnor, historian; and Gareth Rice and Vince Trzcinski, sergeants at arms.

After election of officers, a committee was established to make final preparations for the "Hall of Fame." This is a pictorial story of all the sports teams in this school since 1951. It will be located on the wall across from the Seaholm swimming pool.

Heads for various committees were also chosen. They include John Rhein, social; Bill Prahler, membership and John Vandoren, financial.

Exams Leave Girls Ready for Relaxin'

By BETSY WRIGHT
Special Writer

This past week has been one of the busiest of the entire year for Kingwoodites. Midyear exams beginning early Monday morning will end Friday noon when the free weekend will start.

Borders and day students alike will then either relax at home, visit friends or perhaps go skiing for a much-needed break after a hectic week. The second semester will be ushered in with the usual classes next Monday morning.

BOWLING FOR the first half of

A NIGHT of theater-going was Proscenium's most recent activity. Members and advisors-for-the-night drove into Detroit to the Shubert theater, where matinee instructor Mr. Richard Bagge, had procured tickets for the Broadway musical, "One Upon a Mattress."

ANOTHER interesting activity was enjoyed by members of the Biology Club. At a recent meeting, Mr. James Fowler from Cranbrook Institute spoke on "Nature Around Us."

After viewing slides, the students asked questions concerning the subject at hand.

FUTURE SOCIAL Workers also had the privilege of listening to a well-informed speaker from the Birmingham Child Guidance Center. A movie "Summer Decision" was shown and questions asked by the students were answered.

THEY are sending their varsity and second teams to the round-robin tournament. Although the actual lineup for Kingwood's return is known as of yet, many returning players from last year and several promising juniors are expected to comprise the varsity and reserve squads.

THE CAST for the Dramatic Club play, "The Importance of Being Earnest," was posted this week. The cast will be coached on "how to speak with an English accent." Not only is the play English but also humorous.

THE SIX senior high majorettes will be twirling at half-time on Friday at the Cherry Hill basket-ball game. Ginny Melke and Sue Meyers will present a special routine with flag batons. The majorettes will be accompanied by the senior band.

THE NEXT edition of the Groves newspaper, The Scripator, will be issued on Feb. 10. For the first time at Groves, the staff is trying to make it a six-page paper, instead of only four pages.

OUT OF THE many acts which tried out for the Junior Variety Show, only seven were chosen. There are two teachers sponsoring the show. They are Mrs. Saylor and Mrs. Baumgartner. The show will be presented at an all-school assembly on Feb. 17. Next week, the theme will be announced.
