

Local Couple Makes Annual Ski Jaunt

LATHRUP—Ski Week at Boyne Mountain found Mr. and Mrs. Hank Roller right there joining in the fun. They have made the trip the last three years and attended this season with three other couples. Following the winding of the annual event, the group headed for St. Helen for a short stay at the summer home of one of the couples.

Very recent newcomers are the Hoffmans on W. 11 Mile Road to have their own cabin cruiser are ardent sports fans, be it key, football, baseball or what else you like. They are former Detroiters and he is a salesman for roofing company. Oh, yes, Mrs. Hoffman likes amateur theater very much.

And not too long ago Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bator moved from Detroit to Coral Gables with their youngsters. The children are Paul, 9, Greg, 6, Louise, 5, Andrea, 4, William, 2. Mr. and Mrs. Bator enjoy bridge and pinocchio. He is accountant for Hawthorne Metal Products in Royal Oak.

Parents of five children also are Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lupo who moved from Detroit recently to Southfield and their names are Gordon, 11, Sandy, 10, Nicky, 9, and three daughters are Janis, 12, Julie, 12, and Kathy, 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Mulligan who spent a "wonderful two weeks" recently at Ft. Lauderdale are still thrilled about a side-trip to Palm Beach and a day's deep-sea fishing. Mulligan caught a sail fish, his wife netted a dolphin and best of all, said Mrs. Mulligan, were "the schools and schools of porpoises which followed us, as though we were old friends."

The James Heidbreder of Midland Drive are former residents of Boulder, Colo. who moved while back and are now your neighbors. He is an industrial relations analyst for Ford Motor Co., has a private pilots license and likes photography.

Mrs. Heidbreder is active in sports such as tennis, swimming and golf and is associated with Robinson Furniture Co., in Sterling Heights.

Right now, she said, their main interest is in the coming election in Southfield and so the Heidbreder's are handling publicity for Bill Booth, candidate for mayor.

Two silver tea services, plus ever candleabra were initiated at the annual Presidents' Day Tea today, given by Lathrup Woman's Club. The club acquired them from the profits of their November amorgasboard luncheon.

Mrs. Earl M. Daig, first president of the group, and Mrs. Freddie Byington, last year's president, presided. Hostess was Mrs. Gladys Lobanoff.

Appropriately, the topic chosen for Mrs. D. B. Struthers for her address to the club was titled "Cleaner, Hest and Mamie."

Presidents of area women's clubs attended the tea as guests of the local group.

Wee Betsy Raish, two and two-thirds months old, according to their proud parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Raish, will host an "at-home" Feb. 9. Guests will be friends of the family and relatives who weren't able to attend an earlier party in her honor.

Her god-mothers will preside at the tea-table. They are Mrs. Tobin Rote and Mrs. Francis T. M. Loud and, naturally, their husbands and god-fathers to Miss Betty—will be at the festivities also.

The Raishes, incidentally attended the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Alumni mid-winter dance at the Detroit Club Saturday and then entertained friends after the dance.

They were also among guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Chudik of Bloomfield Hills, who entertained at cocktails before the dance.

The Thomas Adams tell us they miss their Lathrup friends but are rapidly getting settled in their Bloomfield Hills home. Recent residents of Wilshire Drive, they made the move after seven years in Lathrup.

Adams is the president of Campbell-Ewald and is active in civic affairs. Mrs. Adams bowls and was formerly a member of the Lathrup Woman's Club. Their three daughters are Janis, 12, Julie, 12, and Kathy, 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Mulligan who spent a "wonderful two weeks" recently at Ft. Lauderdale are still thrilled about a side-trip to Palm Beach and a day's deep-sea fishing. Mulligan caught a sail fish, his wife netted a dolphin and best of all, said Mrs. Mulligan, were "the schools and schools of porpoises which followed us, as though we were old friends."

Mrs. Paul Pelletier, chairman of the Women's Activities Committee which is busily campaigning for neighbor Landers, says at least three coffees have already been held to give residents a chance to meet and chat with their candidates. More coffees are being planned.

The first of the three get-togethers was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed LeFevre of Bainbridge Drive. That one was Thursday evening.

Next, the campaigning moved Friday to the genial Lloyd Gabler's, over on Autumn Lane and finally the William Henrys hosted interested citizens Wednesday.

Gabler, by the way, was elected last week to the County Board of Supervisors. The selection was made by Southfield Council.

The steering committee for Landers includes LeFevre, George Kent, Paul Pelletier, Robert Durward, Gabler and Henry.

Mrs. Fred Cowin is in charge of the program. Members will prepare and bring Valentine centerpieces which will be judged at the meeting. Plans for a telephone party will be discussed and, during the afternoon.

Cranbrook Villager Named to Post On County Board

Cranbrook Village—Lloyd Gabler, 46, of 18700 Autumn Lane, will represent the City of Southfield on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors. He was elected to the post last week by a 4 to 3 vote of the council, winning over Councilman Clarence A. Durbin.

The council, on a motion by Councilman Thomas M. Costello who nominated Gabler, then elected Gabler by acclamation.

Gabler is a lieutenant colonel in the army reserve and has been associated with the central sales office of Detroit Edison Co. for 20 years.

To Present Slides At Guild Meeting

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—Mrs. Joseph Dran of Lahser Road will be hostess Wednesday to members of St. Davidica's Guild of Holy Name Church. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Thomas Serba and Mrs. Chester Jankowski.

Presenting a series of color slides will be Mrs. Sidney F. McKenna who will also act as commentator. Her subject will be "The American Idea," featuring pictures of original American paintings and sculpture in a modern home.

He and his wife, Eleanor, have two children, Paul, 12, and Annice, 8.

Repeat CD Classes At Lathrup School

LATHRUP—A 13-week course in medical emergency survival will again be offered at Lathrup school, beginning Wednesday. Class hours are from 8 to 10 p.m.

The course is offered by the Oakland County Office of Civil Defense and the county health department. The program uses demonstration material and film.

It is not a first aid class but prepares individuals for any home or community emergency or need. The classes are taught by doctors and registered nurses, with special training in disaster techniques.

There is no fee for the classes. No class will be held Feb. 15.

Moms Collect $4,468 For Dimes Drive In Southfield Area

SOUTHFIELD—Southfield mothers, who marched Sunday for the New March of Dimes, collected $4,468. Mrs. Robert Grigg, 28744 Southerland, and Mrs. S. S. Zwiern, 28654 Chelmsford, are co-chairmen for the area.

Mrs. Zwiern will continue to accept donations by mail. Some of the volunteers will stop for contributions during the week where residents were not at home.

Want ads cannot be accepted after 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

S'held Orchestra To Give Concert

SOUTHFIELD—Southfield's All-City Orchestra, conducted by Richard Brown, will present its second concert at 8 p.m. on Feb. 3, in the Southfield High School auditorium.

The All-City Orchestra is in its second year of operation. Organized by Mr. Brown, an instrumental music instructor in the Southfield Public Schools, the Junior symphonic orchestra is made up of young people from the sixth grade through high school, from surrounding areas.

The concert is open to the public.
