

If you who read this today have a mother or father still living, have you continued to let them realize that you are grateful for their many sacrifices on your behalf? If you do, then, if you have children of your own, do, then, if you have children of your own, do, then, if you have children of your own, do similar loving homage to you, as years roll on. Every season requires crop planting, so does love!

Dramatics Club Play Now in Rehearsal

By JAN TARAKS and BETH KOENIG
Special Writers
The importance of being Ernest, the Dramatics Club play, has been cast.
Ryan Carpenter, John Nyland, Bob Winkel, Tom Wood, Bruce Risk, Lee Eyer, Beth Koenig, Judy Barlow and Jan Taraks have been selected to act in the humorous English comedy by Oscar Wilde. The play has started rehearsals under the direction of Miss Katie Bice, dramatics club sponsor, March 23, 24, and 25 the play will be presented to the public in the little theatre at Groves.

LAST WEEK the sophomore class of Groves presented a variety show as an assembly. Among the acts were "Getting to Know You" by T.A.F., a 10th grade social club; "Saints," on horns, with Dick McIntyre, Jim Honeyey, Russ Kow, and John Felt; "Casey at the Bat," done by Tony Michal and Pat Harkle and "Gidget," danced by Helen Mathews, Marilee Harl and Jan McKinney.
ON FEB. 17, the junior class will put on their variety show as an assembly during sixth hour. The show includes "Kids!" "Sisters," "Mr. Sandman" and other pantomime acts.

Also, there will be piano talent displayed. Mrs. Saylor, junior class sponsor, is the organizer of the show, with help from Mrs. Baumgartner.
WHY NOT? This is the way the Scribner staff feels about trying to put out a six-page addition. The paper comes out tomorrow and as an added attraction there will be a junior high supplement. The staff is gaining more confidence as the year continues. They have decided to not only have a six page paper, but also have it come out every two or three weeks, instead of monthly. The editor of the new paper is Marilyn Owens. She will have help of Ann Lawrence, news editor, John Cole, feature editor and Bob Newman, sports editor.

Honor Society to Give 'Valentasia' Dance

By VEE VOELKER
Special Writer
Cupid will be busy this Saturday as he helps the Seaholm chapter of National Honor Society present the traditional "Valentasia" dance, which will be held in the Maple Room, is the corsage included in the cost of the ticket.
Members of N.H.S., with the assistance of Mrs. Henritta Cortwright, Mr. Eugene Hubbard and Mr. Charles Thumser, have been rapidly making plans for their dance since early January.
In charge of decorations and refreshments are Sally Ryden and Ann Fayton. Head of the corsage committee is Carolyn Rosenberger and the band committee, Mosby Harvey.
Other committee chairmen are Donna Schwab, programs and tickets; Beck Blum, publicity; Ed Lystra, chaperones and Barb Burge, clean-up.

FINISHING the season with a winning record of 12 wins and 10 losses and sixth place in the Metropolitan Debate Association northern division league, the Seaholm debate team now is looking forward to the state elimination tournament at Pontiac Feb. 13.
The league tournament held at Southfield recently, reserve and varsity teams won three out of four matches on Southfield and eight out of ten on Pontiac.
Betty Daane and Barry Kriger, reserve affirmative, were victorious in both matches. Mike Gibson and Bob Maxwell, winning over Country Day, are on the reserve negative team.

THE ANNUAL, J-Hon, which will take place in May, takes a lot of hard work and good leadership to make it a success. The general chairman of this dance, Patsy Gordon, was recently chosen by a steering committee made up of class officers and honorcom representatives. Patsy will supervise the activities of each committee chairman on all big decisions.
Juniors interested in working on the various committees may give their names to their homeroom representatives. From these lists of students, the steering committee will choose the committee chairman and members. Various committees include refreshments, decorations, tickets and programs, publicity, bands and chaperones.

GAS dries clothes

Powder-soft!

Drying clothes in wintertime is a discouraging problem... hauling, lagging, stooping, stretching, and straining clotheslines—a cluttered damp basement for days on end or frosty fingers and frozen clothes. Now's the time to get a Gas clothes dryer. Why Gas? Because Gas dries clothes so white, sweet-smelling and fluffy soft... so fast and easy. And a Gas dryer costs less to install and less to operate.

Students Welcome Two New Girls

By CINDY GEISLER
Special Writer
As the second semester of the school year began, Bloomfield Country Day School welcomed two new girls. Sandy Movard returned to the school after being away from us for nearly two years and Lorraine Wallace is our new ninth grader.
On February 1, Mrs. L. E. Long and her Latin students attended the spectacular movie "Spartacus" currently playing in Detroit. Everyone enjoyed the movie very much, although they left the theater a little tearful. It provided an excellent supplement to Latin studies.
With exam climax over, the honor roll was announced by Miss Marjorie Sallie, headmistress, amidst the hush of hopeful students. Freshmen and seniors again carried away honors.

Seniors are involved with great plans for their "Cupid's Capers" Valentine dance on Feb. 18.
