Who conserves the conservationists?

Teachers and conservation experts join to provide adult guidance for the eager sixth graders invading Proud Lake Recreation Area by the weekend. My child had a ball and came home steeped in extra knowledge.

Conservation now means much. Forestry and fishes; k.p. and compasses; one-celled animals in the snow. And always the counselors, bless 'em, standing firm. Wishing they could sit down.

Proud Lake does have a corner for counselors, but it lacks chairs, tables, and such. If you have any of these elements of comfort (patio furniture is fine), call Albert Mounin at Proud Lake (MU 5-2483) who will arrange for pick-up at your convenience.
