Couple Exchanges Vows In Presbyterian Church

Janet Elizabeth McDonald became the bride of John Baetz Jr. Saturday in a ceremony officiated by Dr. Glen Harris at First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Carrie McDonald of Westwood Drive, Birmingham. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Baetz of St. Clair Shores.

A RECEPTION at the church followed the ceremony after which there was a family dinner at the bride's home on Westwood Drive. The couple left for a three-week honeymoon to the Gulf of Mexico. For traveling the bride wore a black tweed suit with black and red accessories.

For her wedding, Janet chose a silk organza gown accented with alencon lace, seed pearls and crystals. The bell skirt featured a buttery back with several appliques of lace, pearls and crystals which fell into a chapel train. A double band of alencon lace secured her shoulder length veil of French illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses.

MRS. RICHARD W. Irwin was her sister's matron of honor. Another sister, Mary Ellen, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were the groom's sister, Lena Baetz and two sorority sisters of the bride, Jackie Morvan and Ellen Rosselot.

Their gowns were Perneche blue silk organza with scoop necklines and bell skirts accented with tiny French bows. Their headpieces were a Dior bow of matching organza.

Robert Gurchiek was best man and seating the guests were Mitchell Zdyb, Russell Holmes, Ed Van Elander, Harlan Worden and Richard W. Irwin.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. McDonald chose a silk alpaca sheath of royal blue. Mrs. Baetz chose a dusty rose peau de soie dress. The newlyweds will reside in Detroit.
