Margaret Pahl Weds At Holy Name Church

Given in marriage by her father, Margaret Ann Pahl became the bride of Norman W. Daniel Saturday morning at Holy Name Church in Birmingham. The double ring ceremony was performed at 11 o'clock.
The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Pahl of Snowhoe Circle, Bloomfield Hills. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wojtowicz of Detroit.

MARGARET appeared in a gown of peau de soie designed with a sabrina neckline with reambroidered alencon lace and seed pearls with lace extending in appliques to the midriff. A matching alencon lace cap secured her veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses and ivy.
Honor attendant was Georgia Dumville and attendants were Sandra White and Lorraine Pahl. They wore blue organzine taffeta gowns featuring round necklines and bell-shaped skirts.
Following the ceremony, a luncheon was served at Forest Lake Country Club.
