

Valentine Luncheon Has 'Hearty' Theme

FOXROFT — Red roses and heart-shaped valentines were the theme for the luncheon and bridge party given Friday by Mrs. F. O. Gadd of Meadow Way. Pictures of each guest, taken during their courting days, were framed in hearts and hung in the entrance hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Olson and their sons, Rick and Jack, left their home on Fieldston Court Saturday to move to Miami, Fla. Among the many friends who entertained them before they left were Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Gadd and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Carlson.

WING LAKE — Mr. and Mrs. William Fraser of Worthington returned last week from a skiing trip to the Laurentians. Their children, Sue, Bill and Jack, accompanied them. They spent a week in St. Agathe.

GILBERT LAKE — The annual meeting of North Hills Improvement Association was held Jan. 30 at Bloomfield Township Hall. William Shaul and John P. Malone were elected to the board of directors.

Local Couple Returns From Island Holiday

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Flying home from Hawaii last week were Mr. and Mrs. Leo P. McGuire of Hupp Cross. They left for the west coast right after Christmas and stopped at Pasadena to visit Mrs. Betty Burnett. They were in California for the Rose Parade and Rose Bowl game.

The McGuires spent two weeks on Oahu. Before leaving the islands, they flew to Honolulu, Hawaii, spent a night at Hilo House and visited Kona. Back on the mainland they spent some time touring southern California, visiting La Jolla and San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lovell of Clifton Road had their general house guests during the past week. Mr. and Mrs. John Brodie from Elmira, N. Y. for a short visit.

Last week Mrs. Lovell's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haeffner, came from Clifton, N. J. for a few days.

Alas, there's no bounty in musing!
But wasn't it fun to have a touch of mutiny on the bounty if only for a short while? Harry D. Wise, Sr. of Keller lane in Bloomfield Hills were docked next to the boat named Santa Maria during their recent Caribbean cruise. Along with them on the trip were Dr. and Mrs. Robert Paul Wise and Dr. and Mrs. Donald Bergeron.

Another Bloomfield Hills couple, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Meyer were bunk (or rather dock) mates of poopeduck Paul privater in Curacao when the pirates boarded. Nothing seemed to be amiss—no keening, plant, sailing, or men on a dead man's chest) and it was not until the Meyer's were journeying toward Jamaica aboard the Rotterdam that the news was radioed to them. They will tell friends about it this Saturday when they entertain at dinner in their home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Eversell were guests of honor at a farewell party given last week end by Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Malmeister. The Eversells have a new home awaiting them in Minneapolis where Mr. E. will head the local offices on McManus, John and Adams.

At Home
Mr. and Mrs. William E. Marsh have returned to their home on Lyonhurst after a honeymoon in Florida. Mrs. Marsh is the former Mrs. Gust E. Marsh. They were married January 9 in the First Presbyterian church.

Psycho's Set
Tomorrow night will be opening night for St. Dunstan's presentation of The Shrike. This show will be their entry into the Detroit Windsor theater council competition for the May amateur theatrical festival. Directed by Frank Donagan, assisted by John Coppin and assisted by Mrs. Davy B. Kappa. The leads will be played by Mr. Charles Himelhoch and Mrs. Marion Crocker.

Mrs. Comerford McLaughlin is handling properties and Mrs. Robert Scott is doing costumes, mostly pajamas. I imagine since, as you know, the setting is a mental hospital.

With a cast almost as large as Sparacus, the problem of where to have the cast party loomed rather large. John Coppin timely volunteered his handsome studio but his first offer was vetoed. Someone would surely have been crushed between the ceiling and the oil paints, or fallen in the turpentine. And when there are that many people crammed together there would naturally be someone who couldn't resist adding a comment to one of the portraits. This would be most unfortunate since John has no bearded ladies among his current commissions!

So the pavilion was chosen as cast party site. February 16, Kappa Kappa Gamma will sponsor a benefit performance of The Shrike.

Elkhorn ranch, Tucson, Arizona is the destination of Mr. Jasper Reid; and Mrs. Bruce Booth will spend a month with former B'hamites, the John Hamills who now live in Siesta key, Sarasota, Florida.

Women's Club to Merge With Village Association

BLOOMFIELD SOUTH — WESTCHESTER — A merger will take place soon between the Greater Westchester Village Association and the Westchester Women's Club. With both organizations active, both socially and civically as separate groups, the consolidation of efforts is planned to provide a better and closer knit community.

The association hopes to announce the completed merger at the next general meeting, Feb. 23. Packets have been sent to recently appointed block captains outlining a plan for reporting newcomers, births, marriages and departing residents. These reports will make it possible for association members to promptly welcome newcomers, make junior's arrival a big event and bid farewell to residents leaving for new destinations.

George Tomecek, association secretary and editor of the "Wanderer", the association's newsletter, said he would welcome letters, comments, humorous incidents and any other material that could be used in the publication.

The two dances, sponsored by the Westchester Dance Club, are scheduled for Feb. 18 and March 8 at the Fox and Hound. Residents wishing to attend one or both of the remaining dances should contact George Tomecek, 2750 Farmingdale.

Walnut Lake Club Host At Millionaire Gathering

WEST BLOOMFIELD — WALNUT LAKE—A Las Vegas atmosphere prevailed at the millionaire's party held Jan. 25 by the Walnut Lake Men's club at the club room.

Fabulous sums of play money changed hands rapidly as the 70 guests tried their luck at chuck-a-luck, roulette, craps and the dice tables.

Don Finke of Inkster Road found himself to be a multi-millionaire at the close of the party while Mrs. Joan Aiken's ahead of play money proved her ability as the best lady gambler.

The grand door prize was won by Mrs. Russell Koeps.

Slightly pliant in a millionaire's worth, suddenly popular was the hamburger stand manned by Mr. E. Richards, King Sundstrom, Bill Unsworth and Henry Hall.

Walnut Lake—R. M. Menoch, 2196 Wycliffe Road, executive of Chrysler Corp. was transferred, Feb. 1 from Detroit to the Chrysler Casting Plant, Kokomo, Ind. He will be production control manager.

Walnut Lake—Terry Barr of the Detroit Lions will be the new speaker when 50-ch group of Walnut Lake pack 41 and their parents gather at the annual Michigan Horse Show association dinner at Lansing on Sunday. He was president of the Michigan Horse Show championship in the hunter division for children 13 years and under.
