est to Anderson were trying to persuade him to step down.

Anderson certainly doesn't relish the prospect of a stockholders court suit alleging management not in the best interests of the stockholders. Nobody in management likes that sort of thing. It gets nasty and Andy knows that he'll be the center of attack. His connection with Goebel and the brewery's difficulties couldn't escape attention.

The pressure on Anderson obviously has been overwhelming. There are times when Andy must contemplate the peace of homelife. Is the $40,000 a year from the Lions worth it?

1—REPORTS that Ford will buy 51 per cent of the stock are obviously part of the psychological strategy of the Andersons. Club by-laws prohibit anyone from owning more than 640 of the 12,000 shares.

Ford would have to gain stockholder consent to change the by-laws and then get a majority of stockholders to sell. This doesn't appear possible in the near future. Mr. Curran's magazine didn't get around to this point, either.

In the meantime, Ford has been issuing victory statements in advance of the Feb. 23 meeting. This, too, may be a move in the war of nerves.

Fife continues silent. Does he have enough proxies to remain quiet? Nobody knows. Is Fife permitting the Andersons to shoot all their guns before the battle? How can anyone tell?

Perhaps Fife passes the time recalling the days of long ago when he led the first group of Detroit sportsmen who purchased the club from Fred Mandel.

It was then that Fife participated in the hiring of a fellow named George Wilson, a onetime Chicago Bear great who was looking for a coaching job after an unhappy experience in operating a sporting goods store.

Fife took a liking to Wilson, fought for him in front office meetings.

FIFE EVEN went out of his way to help Wilson by hiring George at the Fife electrical firm during the off season. George needed money. So did a fellow named Friday Macklem, the equipment manager. So Fife hired him, too.

Now Wilson has written letters backing Anderson against Fife. So has Macklem.

Perhaps Fife doesn't sleep very well either.

BIRMINGHAM SENIOR MEN' CLUB: In spite of the heavy snowfall, the attendance at the Friday's meeting was surprisingly good and the members were well rewarded by a talk on the early history of Birmingham, the County and the State by M. F. Cole. Report of the committee concerning incapacitated members was given.

Roger Ingalls, club representative delegated to attend the city commission meetings Monday evenings, reported further on the attitude toward land now designated as city parks.

M. D. "Doc" Laine, 3405 Bradway Blvd., and A. M. Mauters, 528 Covington, were installed as members. Applications for membership by George Johnson, 3458 Alpine, and Sidney Norwood, 4875 Charing Cross, are up for approval.

A CORDIAL invitation was extended to members to participate in shuffle board at the 1st Presbyterian Church on Mondays.

Percy Brice, 18160 Beverly, presented the club with a beautiful cabinet of his own making in which to store cards and other recreation equipment.

A birthday song was sung for Charlie Parks who celebrates his 90th birthday Monday. A special feature was the march by the ladies of the Community House who carried a huge birthday cake with many burning candles and presented it to Parks while singing happy birthday. Parks invited the club to open house at his home, 555 Merrill, Saturday.

F. J. Watkins of 836 Knox, now in Florida, sent greetings to each of the members via the tangerine route.

AFTER LUNCH the inteligencia gathered for a discussion on "What is needed to put our nation on a firm foundation?", monitered by Mr. Gustave Ziegler.

Featured speaker at the next meeting Friday will be Herbert Gardner, 172 Aspen, who will talk on the "Gold Standard" and how the present crisis affects the average man.

stroke mark of 1:01.7 in his first dip in the pool for the Maples.

Dave Smith, who now swims for the University of Indiana, set the backstroke mark in 1958.

OTHER MAPLE victors were: Tom Geggie, 400-yard freestyle, 4:59.5; Don Spencer (also a sophomore), :58 in the 100-yard Butterfly; Jim Leahy, 100-yard freestyle, :54.5; and Bud Heft, diving.

In one of the most excitting matches of the evening, Bob Kennedy edged out Fred Osann by half a second in the 200-yard Individual medley. Kennedy's time was 2:32; Osann's 2:32.6.

MIKE MCCARTHY continued his strong freestyle swimming during his 2:04.1 in the 200-yard event. His time was a pool record.

In the team events, Seaholm captured the 200-yard medley relay with the time of 2:02.4. Winning squad was Tom Spearling, Chuck Morse, Tom Kennedy and Jack Hoyt.

An illegal start caused the Maples to drop the 200-yard freestyle relay by disqualification.

NEXT MEET will be against cross-city rival Groves. Tuesday at home. The contest will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Varsity Wins With 2 Goals

Goalie Bob Kling turned in a brilliant performance in leading the Birmingham Varsity to a 2-0 shutout over Oak Park, Saturday.

After two scoreless periods, Chuck Tower faked out the Oak Park goalie, Clark McCaw, and slipped in the game's first goal. Assist went to Fred Glassford.

Three minutes after Tower's tally, Dave Jensen skated on the goal and with a lightening-like shot scored the Varsity's second goal.

NEXT HOME game for Birmingham will be Saturday at 11:30 a.m. Invading Eton Park for their final Inter-City League meeting is the strong Royal Oak squad.
