Lenten Services At Incarnate Word

Mid-week Lenten services will be held each Wednesday at 9 p.m. at the Lutheran Church of the Incarnate Word.

Sunday school will meet in the community hall instead of the Auburn Heights Elementary School. Classes will be held from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. for children from five to 14 years old.

Sunday nursery school will be held from 11 to 12 a.m. for infants up to five years old.

Pastor's classes will continue for the next four weeks at 9:30 a.m. in the community hall. A nursery is provided for children.

The senior choir will meet Wednesday at 7:15 p.m. in the community hall and the junior choir and confirmation classes will meet Saturday at 10 a.m. in the parsonage.

Mrs. James Wood and Mrs. Erben Hupp will be in charge of the altar for the next four weeks.

Women's Association To Sponsor Dinner

The Women's Association of Community Congregational Church of Latrub Village will host a smorgasbord dinner from 6:30 to 7 p.m. March 2 at the church.

Tickets may be obtained from association members or at the door.

St. Stephen's Women Plan Guest Speaker

A Personal Commitment to "Grow Through Evangelism" will be the topic of Mrs. Harvey Dumville of Christ Church Cranbrook on Monday at a meeting of the Episcopal Church Women of St. Stephen's.

The meeting, which begins at 1:30 p.m., will be at the home of Mrs. Conrad Kohl, 1026 Greentree, Birmingham.

Missionary Couple Return from Congo

Dr. and Mrs. Robert White, Bham First Methodist medical missionaries to the Congo recently arrived home. They were evacuated from the Methodist hospital at Wembo Nyama which has been in danger due to the breakdown of law and order in the area.

Dr. and Mrs. White, who are now on a year's furlough, will be living on Cedar in Birmingham. Their activities will be largely devoted to the general work of the mission board of the church as well as to study in clinical work in one of the nearby universities or hospital Clinics.

They will address the first in a series of Thursday night Lenten programs tonight at 7:30 in the sanctuary. The couple will deliver a "Report from the Congo."

The program will be open to the public.

Rev. Bailey Travels for Conference

The Rev. Mead M. Bailey, minister of Christ Episcopal Church, is attending a six-day conference this week in St. Louis, Mo. The conference is a joint meeting of the National Fellowship of Directors and Ministers of Christian Education of the United Episcopal Church of North America and the National Council of Christian Education of the Episcopal Church of the United States.

Rev. Bailey is participating in a workshop on youth work.

CHURCH MEMBERS will celebrate Brotherhood Sunday this week with Rabbi Nathan Hershfeld of Temple Beth Jacob, Pontiac as guest speaker. He will present at the 9:30 a.m. service.

Rev. Raymond Fenner will preach at the 9:30 a.m. service. Fenner will visit with the Beth Jacob on Friday.

The Child Study Club will hold its monthly luncheon-meeting Feb. 21 at 3:45 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Slater, 4186 Spur Hill Drive, Birmingham.

The program will be led by Rev. Carl Sayers and will continue on each Tuesday and Friday during Lent.

The Junior High Youth Fellowship will have a boyds' supper in Rockeater Feb. 24. Members will meet at the church at 6:15 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Slater, 4186 Spur Hill Drive, Birmingham, are chairmen for the event. The church will accept reservations until Feb. 21.

St. Paul's to Hold Special Services

Special Lenten services will be held at St. Paul Methodist Church during the next four weeks, beginning March 20. There will also be a Thursday service March 30. The Monday evening services will be held from 7 to 8. On Feb. 20, March 6 and March 20, Lenten services will be preceded by free dinners at 6 p.m. On Feb. 27 and March 15, services will be followed by informal fellowship hours with refreshments served.

The dinners and coffee hours are followed by informal fellowship hours with refreshments served. The director of Mrs. Joe Kretzschmar, 2051 1/2 St. Paul, will be in charge of the drive which has been organized in response to an appeal by the Divine Missions Service, Committee and the Department of World Churches of the American Unitarian Association.

Articles may be left at the church at Lone Pine and Woodward or may be shipped to the Service Committee's warehouse, 31 Smith Place, Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Frank Haug of the denominational affairs committee of the church is in charge of the drive. A list of names of donors and the Department of World Churches of the American Unitarian Association.

Articles may be left at the church at Lone Pine and Woodward or may be shipped to the Service Committee's warehouse, 31 Smith Place, Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Arthur Hawkes president of the Alliance announces that the group has undertaken a project to provide clothing for patients of the ward.

Pine Hill Congregational Church recently received membership in the Detroit Association of Congregational Churches. The church was admitted at the Association's annual meeting in Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Alfred D. Grey will lead a series of Lenten sermons at 7:30 a.m. services, and 8 and 9 a.m. school classes will be held at 11 a.m. in the Pine Lake Elementary School.

Confirmation classes begin Sunday at 9:30 a.m. Dr. Grey will instruct children from the 7th through the 12th grades. Adults are invited to attend.

Feb. 25 has been designated as Baptismal Day. All those interested are requested to contact Dr. Grey.

Pine Hill Becomes Member of Group

The 75-voice Chancel Adult Choir of the First Presbyterian Church will present a "Lenten Cantata, 'Forsaken of Man' by Chicago, composer, Leo Sowerby. The Cantata will be presented during the evening of March 19 under the direction of L. Robert Slusser, minister of music.

Dr. Sowerby, a Pulitzer prize winner and well known American composer, is scheduled to visit Birmingham and conduct a reading of his work at the Church of the Holy Spirit for the Detroit Chapter of the American Guild of Organists before the performance.

Indian War Dance

Highlighting the First Methodist Church's Mother and Son Banquet last Thursday was an Indian War Dance by the Hoopa Wacip of Christian Education of the National Council of Christian Education of the United States.

Steinhaus To Perform At the Kirk

The premiere performance of a new composition will highlight the Kirk in a series of religious music services at the Kirk in the Hills Sunday at 4 p.m.

Phillip Steinhaus, organist-chorale conductor, will perform "Tocatta on Picardy," a new composition written by Gordon Young, organist of the First Presbyterian Church, Detroit. Young has dedicated the composition to Steinhaus.

Steinhaus will also present an original recital devoted to the works of Bach, Cesar Franck, de Malingre and Messiaen.

STEINHAUS HAS APPEARED at regional and national conventions of the American Guild of Organists as well as in recitals throughout the country. He recently performed with the Detroit Symphony and at Washington Cathedral.

In addition to his concert work and direction of the Kirk's musical program, Steinhaus also records for Boston Records.

Other elections included the Rev. Dr. A. Fletcher Plant as chairman of the diocese department of missions and Donald Sawyer, 679 W. Maple, Birmingham, as chairman of the boys work for the Diocese of Michigan. Both are with St. James.

1st Presbyterians To Show and Tell On Family Night

"Show and Tell" will highlight the Family Night program following the dinner at First Presbyterian Church next Thursday. Mrs. Edson K. Pool will preside as families show and tell about articles they have brought from various Latin American countries.

The theme of the series, "The Christian Mission in Latin America," finds expression in the decorations by Mrs. John Slater and her sons, John and Philip. Slater will direct the Chapel Girls' Choir, 5th and 6th grades, in their portion of the program.

The Rev. Rev. Jack W. Angerman, minister of education and Miss Eugenia Guiter, director of children's work, attended the 12th annual meeting of the Association of the United Presbyterian Churches of Educators in St. Louis, Mo. last week.

They also attended the annual meeting of the Division of Christian Education, National Council of Churches, Angerman is serving as chairman of the senior school section of the Presbyterian conference.
