Eastover Area Friends Plan April Trip to Paris

NORTH ADAMS—The thought of "April in Paris" is beginning to snowball in the Eastover School area and throughout the Bloomfield Hills School District.

It began with an idea Wilfred Bobier Jr. of Eastover Road had a few months ago. He visited many travel agencies gathering European travel data he needed for a group of enthusiasts at Vickers. When the plan and tour was completed, Bobier found he needed a larger group to sponsor the tour. He and his neighbor, Erwin Rogers of Eastover Road, presented the plan to the Bloomfield Hills School District and last Monday evening made announcements at all the PTO's throughout the school district.

The three-week trip to Europe will leave April 2 for Paris. The itinerary will include the first weekend in Paris, two days in Nice, then on to the Italian Riviera, a motor coach to Florence and Venice. Other experiences will be a cable car trip in Austria, and a steamer trip up the Rhine River in Germany.

Those interested in the Eastover School area may contact the Wilfred Bobier Jr. or the Erwin Rogers.

Representatives from the countries the tour will visit will be present at a meeting tonight at the Bloomfield Hills School.

Sporting a deep tan after spending the holiday season and most of January in the British West Indies is Mrs. Fred E. Bigelow of North Adams Road.

Accompanying her on the picturesque trip to San Juan, Puerto Rico, was Mrs. Laurence J. Hetszel of Birmingham. Among the vacation highlights was their trip to the Virgin Islands. Another week was spent at the Coronado Beach at Bal Harbor, Fla.

Mrs. Bigelow returned in time to entertain friends at a Valentine dinner-dance at the DAC on Saturday evening. Finding their places at the gaily decorated Valentine table were guests the Cyril Beams, the Robert Bradshaws and the G. E. Ryders of Grosse Pointe Woods, the H. Chrys Hilliers, Miss Ilea Fastick, Halford Bair, Dr. Bruce Lockwood of Detroit.

Others were Mrs. John Hanna, Mrs. Laurence Hetszel, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Shaeffer of Birmingham, the Mrs. Ferrande, the John Gibrays of Bloomfield Hills, J. Gordon Ritchie, Miss Ramona Wright, Guy Cameron of Dearborn.

Mrs. Gail Smith of Parkman Drive has just returned home after visiting relatives in California. She divided her stay between her sister and niece, Margaret Whiting and Deborah, at Brentwood and her mother and aunt, Mrs. Richard Whiting and Mrs. Margaret Young at W. Los Angeles.

The Smiths are looking forward to a visit from Margaret Whiting who will be appearing at a Windsor, Can., club beginning Feb. 25 for a two-week engagement. She will spend the weekend of Feb. 25 with the Smiths and meet first month-out, Richard Whiting Smith, for the first time.

The Robert Wallaces of Tullamore Drive are back home after a scenic train trip through the west and visiting relatives in California. During the three weeks, they visited the Raymond Winters in San Mateo and toured San Francisco. Another stop was made in Los Angeles and Buena Park where they visited the Donald Heddestones.

Greeting them on their return were the Wallace children, Jeff and Peter, and Mrs. Blaine Coekran of Pittsburgh, Pa. Mrs. Wallace's mother, who has been holding down the home front during their absence.

The Fred Cruse family of Charing Way Drive is fast becoming ski enthusiasts. Last Saturday they joined the Clare Charltons of Oxford for a day on the slopes at Mount Christie.

The group returned to the Charming home in the evening for cocktail and dinner. The Cruses also made a stop at the Guest House at Oxford before returning home.

Many North Adams area residents will be joining their neighbors at the Eastover School March 2. There they will board a school bus that will take them to the Rivera Theater for the "Sound of Music".

This is another of Eastover School's PTO fund-raising campaigns to purchase a television set with Channel 36 for the school. Mrs. DeWitt Sprout of Romney Road is ticket chairman.

A tuck of the Marshall Fredericks studio was a "special treat" for Mrs. Beverly May's sixth grade class of Eastover School a morning last week. Accompanying the children were mothers, Mrs. Tony Shina, Mrs. Robert Ruge and Mrs. Beverly Badalament.

Newlyweds Honeymoon In Aspen

Christ Church Cranbrook was the setting for the marriage of Phyllis Marie Hodges and John Shipman Osler Jr., on Saturday. The Rev. Lester Dobyns performed the ceremony. Reception followed at Orchard Lake Country Club.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard E. Hodges of Birmingham, Wash. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. John S. Osler of Glenngary Circle and the late Mr. Osler.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, Phyllis wore a bouquet taffeta gown with fitted bodice and a shallow scooped neckline accented with lace. Her elbow length silk illusion veil was secured by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and lily.

Carol Hodges, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of periwinkle blue silk organza with a full gathered skirt and carried a bouquet of heather and pink roses.

JAMES A. Hubbard Jr. stood as best man and ushers were Gerald Campbell and James Kraus.

Mother of the bride chose a cocoa silk sheath with matching accessories. Mrs. Osler selected a beige silk tulle sheath and matching accessories. Both wore corsages of cymbidium orchids.

The couple will honeymoon in Aspen, Colo.
