

ADDITIONAL SPORTS

Cleveland School Downs Crane Matmen, Cagers

Cranbrook's wrestling team dropped two decisions last week. They were pinned by Pontiac Northern 26-6, Feb. 7, and 34-6 by Cleveland University School, Saturday.

CUS's basketball squad also took the measure of the Crane cagers Saturday, 34-55.

Only Cranbrook winner of the week was the hockey-six. They downed Lakeside Friday, 4-1. Jack McCarthy got a first period goal. John Bilsdon and Tom Cooper scored in the second period. Tom Brown added the final tally in the last 20 minutes.

LOME GOAL-scorer for Lakeside was Tom Beveridge in the second period.

Pete Maxwell made 23 saves for Cranbrook while Alex Patchak swept-away 17 of the Crane shots.

The Crane hockey team finished in fourth place in the International High School Hockey League's first division. They won seven, lost four and tied one.

IN THE BASKETBALL game against the Cleveland prep school, George Blanchard was high scorer for the home team with 20 points. Jack Bollert added 13 and Dave Kessell 11.

Wayne Kniffen was high for the game with 28.

After a 44-31 halftime lead, the University School poured it on in the second half to win by 39 points. It was the worst defeat of the season for the Cranes.

CRANBROOK'S cagers are 1-1 in the Interstate Preparatory School League.

NEXT basketball game will be Friday against Madison at the Cranbrook gym at 8 p.m.

Recreation Round-Up

FAMILY SWIMMING

Family swimming has been extended at Seaholm pool through Feb. 15. It is held each Monday evening from 7:30-10 and is preceded by a ladies swimming class.

Derby pool will remain open Thursday from 7:15 to 9:45 p.m. for family swimming until the end of April. All children must be accompanied by a parent.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The boys' basketball program held Saturday mornings will end Feb. 25. Instruction in basketball fundamentals and informal league play for 4th, 5th and 6th graders is conducted at Adams, Baldwin, Midvale, Pierce, Torry and Quanton schools from 9:30 to 11:30.

Junior high boys may play at Seaholm from 9:30 to 11:30 and senior high boys may practice at Derby gym from 9:15 to 10:15 a.m.

SATURDAY SWIMMING

The spring series of swimming classes for elementary school children will begin March 18. Application blanks will be distributed to the schools the last week in February and registration will be taken from March 6 to 10.

THERAPEUTIC SWIMMING Registrations are being taken at the Recreation office for the spring series of Therapeutic swimming classes which begin March 8. This activity is offered for the physically handicapped and is held at Seaholm pool on Wednesdays from 7:00-8:00 p.m.

LADIES SLIM-TRIM

Anyone interested in the ladies slim-trim classes may call the Recreation office, MI 4-1800. This activity will begin at Torry school on Wednesday evenings as soon as the minimum registrations are received.

TEEN CENTER

The next session on Feb. 24 will feature the S-Quires a 5-piece rock 'n' roll band composed of Seaholm students.

During intermission, the members will be entertained by the Maple Trio, Birmingham's counterpart to the Kingston Trio, featuring Hal Dunne, Bill Purdy and Steve Collister.

SENIOR MEN'S CLUB

It was a pleasure to welcome guests Ralph A. Liefeld of Southfield, Charles Stash, Frederick Johnson and William Morrison of Birmingham at the Feb. 10 meeting.

The application for membership by Sidney Norwood, 4895 Charing was approved.

J. H. Piteher, 790 Colonial Court, volunteered to serve as captain of the group to cooperate with the Community House committee in the raising of funds for maintenance of the House activities for the coming year. A $500.00 goal is sought.

ROGER INGALLS, who attends the city commission meetings on Mondays, gave a comprehensive report on future improvements contemplated by the city.

Happy Birthday was sung for Herbert Flemington who did his usual fine job of decorating the ranch room for our Lincoln's birthday meeting.

The speaker of the day was Herbert Gardner, president of the Birmingham branch of the Detroit Bank & Trust Co. His subject was "The Gold Standard and International Relations in the world economy affected the dollar."

PRESIDENT Charles F. Staples announced that the feature programs for Feb., March and April are already scheduled.

The discussion group went into session as usual. Its subject was "Should a Doctor ever Reveal His Patients' Secrets?" The discussion will be "Conflict of Interests" between politics and industry.

The feature speaker Feb. 17 will be Gustave Ziegler who will talk about George Washington.

ADULT BASKETBALL LEAGUE Results of last week's games in the Royal Oak-Birmingham Adult Basketball League were:

- Jets, 45, Torrence Oil 37
 - Lathrup 52, Unknowns 34
 - Torrence Oil 44, Fawcett Hide, 43
 - Jets 63, Lathrup 26
- Game schedules for next week: Feb. 20; Untouchables vs. Jets Feb. 21; Lathrup vs. Torrence Oil; Fawcett Hide vs. Unknowns

IN THE RECREATION DEPARTMENT hockey games Saturday, the Yellow Jackets defeated the Midlets All-stars 5 to 3.

Ed Brown netted two goals in the first period and one in the second to take high-scoring honors for the Yellow Jackets. Other Yellow Jacket scorers were John Fleming and Bob Spencer with one each.

The All-star goals were scored by Bob Crankshank and Jeff McPaxlin of the Eldorado team and by Rick Thornton of the Green Hornets.

THE JUVENILE All-stars defeated the league champion Huskies in a close game, 1-0. The all-star goal was scored by Mike Nolan assisted by Bill Rogers.

The state championship play-off for the juvenile division began on Monday in Royal Oak with the Royal Oak Cleaners defeating Birmingham Varsity 2-2 in a sudden-death overtime.

Birmingham's 14idget champions, the Yellow Jackets, will play Dearborn on Monday, at 9:00 p.m. at Eton Park, Municipal Link.

Track Coaches Conduct Clinic At Seaholm High

The third annual clinic of the Michigan Interscholastic Track Coaches Association will take place Saturday at Seaholm High School.

There will be five panel discussions, and election of officers.

Panel are: Shot Put, Broad Jump, Distance running, Track coaching psychology and the 440.

COACHES from throughout the State will attend the annual seminar to discuss information pertinent to track and its function.

Seaholm track mentor, Kermit Ambrose will be host.

Methodists Defeat Baptists in YMCA Church Cage Loop

First Methodist upset First Baptist, 40-39 to tie them for first place in the YMCA Church Basketball League.

In the other game, First Presbyterian won a forfeit decision over Franklin Community Church.

Both teams tied for the lead sport 6-2 records. The other two squads have 2-6 marks.

LAST GAMES of the season will be Monday at Derby Junior High. First Presbyterian will play First Methodist at 8 p.m. while First Baptist meets Franklin Community Church in the first game at 7.

In case of a tie, playoffs will take place the following Monday.

Pierce School Fair Will Open Friday

Pierce School Parent-Teacher Association will hold its annual fair from 4 to 9:30 p.m. Friday at Pierce Elementary School.

The program will offer entertainment for both children and adults with 30 game and sale booths available.

Highlighting the entertainment program will be California Joe and his Hollywood Pinto trick horse. The pair will hold three performances on the school auditorium stage at 5, 6:30 and 8 p.m.

The fair, designed for family participation, dates back at least to 1924 when the school building was erected. The Parent-Teacher Association believes it to be the oldest fair in the Birmingham area. The fair is open to the public.

Nine Good Reasons Why The Birmingham Eccentric Is The Outstanding Advertising Medium For Your Business!

Every possible assistance is provided in preparing copy and layout for your advertisement, by efficient well trained staff personnel.

Coverage of the outstanding "blue-chip" Birmingham-Bloomfield market is very high. The Birmingham Eccentric is read each week by an average of 69% of the families in the area.

Circulation is audited twice yearly by the highly respected Audit Bureau of Circulation 12,448* families are reached by this newspaper, on an average, each week.

Editorial content is oriented to family and community. Because The Birmingham Eccentric is a family newspaper, it has wide appeal to all age groups, is read and re-read by the whole family.

News is eagerly sought out by our experienced editorial staff. Because of the excellent news coverage, the pages of The Birmingham Eccentric are thoroughly read, thus providing a new medium for your sales messages.

The Birmingham Eccentric has been awarded 20 different editorial awards since 1949, including twice, the National Editorial Association First Prize for General Excellence among all American Suburban Weeklies.

Rates are seventh lowest per thousand readers, among the 30 top weeklies in the Detroit area. This low rate enables you to utilize more space, and still stay within your budget.

Income is high for those families served by The Birmingham Eccentric. According to The Standard Rate and Data Service, the average consumer spendable income for this area for 1959 was $10,611.

Constant effort is made by the advertising staff to provide quick and efficient service to advertisers. Help in merchandising is provided by staff members.

These nine points are just a few of the many factors which make The Birmingham Eccentric your best local advertising medium.

*As filed with the Audit Bureau of Circulations, subject to audit

The "Total" Advertising Medium

The Birmingham Eccentric

Orlick's Assistant Named Golf Pro

Warren Orlick, Birmingham's golf pro at Tam O'Shanter Golf Club, Orchard Lake, has again shown his astuteness as an instructor.

John Montz, Royal Oak, who understated Orlick for the past five years, has been appointed head-off professional at the Lapeer Country Club.

This is the second year in a row that Orlick has been able to get his assistants jobs as golf professionals.

Brother Rice Wins 11th Straight Game

Brother Rice High last Thursday won its 11th straight basketball game of the season. The 2nd grade cagers walloped Birney Junior High, 46-19.

After a slow start the Rice squad gathered steam and walked over the outclassed junior high school squad.

Mike Callahan led both teams with 13 points. Dave Walker added 12 and Paul Jagels 11 for Rice. Other scorers were Bill Moore with seven and Tom Gracey with two.

NEXT GAME for Brother Rice is Friday at Lady of the Lakes. Game time is 7 p.m.

WALLPAPER PERSONALIZES YOUR HOME . . .

Come in Soon and See Our New Spring Patterns

Experienced Consultant to assist you

T. E. HOGAN CO.
2665 WOODWARD AVE.
3 Bks. S. of 12-Mile
LI 4-3300

Ample Parking
Open Fri. Eves

GET ACQUAINTED WITH KRUSE

Yes, Mr. Kruse's expert scissors will style for you such a most flattering version of today's style that you will be pleased you visited Kruse's new salon.

Mr. Kruse complete $10.00

A regular $15 value including . . .

- ☆ Style cut by R. R. Kruse
- ☆ Conditioning Shampoo
- ☆ Keratin Body Conditioner
- ☆ Deluxe Cold Wave
- ☆ Glamour Rinse
- ☆ Fashion Set

call EL 6-4898

KRUSE'S Beauty Salon

24725 Southfield at 10 Mile Rd.
Just in front of Melody Lanes Bowling Alley