Maple Cagers Trounced twice By League Foes

By JOE CADARU
Seaholm's up-and-down cagers were definitely down last week...

13 of 18 charity losses for just better than 72 per cent.
In field goals, the Shamrocks outscored Seaholm 20-10...

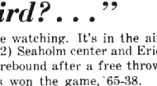

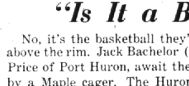

Table with 2 columns: Team Name and Score. Lists various teams and their performance.

THIS CHARGE IS baseless, really. Wade had a lot of places to go.

After all, Rams head coach Bob Waterfield also has a bar-restaurant, and Pat Huron might want to take all the trade away from his boss...

"Is It a Bird?..."

No, it's the basketball they're watching. It's in the air above the rim. Jack Bachelor (12) Seaholm centers and Eric Price of Port Huron await the rebound after a free throw by a Maple cager.

Lathrup Puckster Hopes To Play Professionally

By JOE CADARU
If Lady Luck smiles on Lathrup, the city may soon boast its first professional hockey player.

THE JUNIOR Wings are far ahead of the other six teams in the Bonder Cities Hockey League.

A sudden-death overtime goal by Royal Oak Cleaner Dale Clark put an end to Birmingham Varsity's hopes to win playoff competition in the Inter-City Hockey League.

Swim Wins Come Easily; But Maple Tankers Wary

The day of reckoning is drawing near. Corey Van Fleet's Seaholm swimmers keep on winning their meets.

Groves '5' Too Tough For Pontiac Emmanuel

"If we can get by Riverside Friday night, we'll be in good shape for the new Tri-Rivers league next year."
