

Wayne Offers Scholarship

Applications for the first Wayne State University Scholarship sponsored by the University's Alumnae Scholarship Committee, 1139 Edmunds, Birmingham, accepted by the Club.

THE SCHOLARSHIP will cover tuition for the fall semester and will be renewable. The winner will be decided on the basis of character and citizenship, financial need, superior academic achievement and seriousness of purpose. Applications are available from high school counselors.

Funds for the scholarship were raised by the Alumnae through their card parties, a December bazaar and the sale of the International Cook Book which was published by the Club.

we take special pride in helping YOUNG PEOPLE get ahead!

...from the time they open their first savings account with nickels and dimes.

...through the period when the regular income of a new job needs careful planning.

...and on into marriage, home ownership, a family—all the things that make a future bright!

Naturally, it's the older customers who form the foundation of our service. But we want the young people to know they're always welcome at Birmingham Federal Savings.

MRS. KENNETH HARTUNG

Bride Wears Gown of White Summer Taffeta

Anne Louise Notman became the bride of Kenneth A. Hartung Feb. 11 at the First Presbyterian Church of Flint. A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlor.

Parents of newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. John Notman of Flint and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hartung of Country Club Lane, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE

wore a ballerina length gown of summer taffeta with a scoop neckline outlined with iridescent sequins and tiny seed pearls. The very full skirt had appliqués of lace with sequins and pearls.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a tiny cap of pleated tulle and lace with small rose buds outlined with sequins and pearls. She carried three gardenias centered in a crescent bouquet of stephanotis.

MAID OF HONOR

was Sandra Tunn of Flint and bridesmaids and Margaret Notman of Flint. They wore pale orchid sheaths of silk organza with a full overskirt and matching hats of silk organza fashioned in small flat bows.

They carried matching crescent bouquets of violets surrounded by sprays of heather.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Notman chose an emerald green silk shantung with accessories of champagne. Mother of the bridegroom selected a royal blue silk shantung with white accessories. Both mothers had cymbidium orchids.

CARL HARTUNG stood as best man and ushers were Michael Gilmathy and Bruce Hartung.

YWCA to Sponsor Family Potluck

Oakland Branch YWCA will hold family potluck dinner Friday at 6:30 P. M. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Enoch will show their slides of Germany and Switzerland taken during their many visits to the two countries since the war.

Persons planning to attend are asked to bring their own table service, meat, milk and a dish to pass. Coffee will be provided. Reservations must be in by Thursday, February 23.
