Local Girls Represent Colleges on Panel

Eight local girls participated in a panel discussion at the 15th annual College Information Day, sponsored by the Detroit Committee for Seven Eastern Women's Colleges at the Women's City Club. The affair was held Dec. 27.

Answering questions about their respective schools were Kathleen Mahoney of Barham Rusticelli of Barnard; Shirley Smith of Mt. Holyoke; Jill Shallcross of Radcliffe; Josephine Scuderi of Smith; Barbara Hobart and Elizabeth Elliott of Wellesley and Delphia Laquerson of Bryn Mawr.

Mr. Leonard Grabow, chairman of the Seven College Committee, greeted Michigan high school girls, their parents and teachers. A slide tour of the college campuses followed, with a commentary by Mrs. William Harris, Bryn Mawr representative.

Including the local college girls, there were 14 undergraduates from Barnard, Mt. Holyoke, Radcliffe, Smith, Wellesley, and Bryn Mawr. The panel was moderated by Mrs. George Hilfinger, a Smith alumna.

Mrs. Alan Irwin was chairman of Information Day.

Professor Will Speak at January Meeting of LWV

Dr. Charles R. Adrian, professor of political science at Michigan State University, will be the speaker Jan. 10 at the meeting of the League of Women Voters. The January general meeting will be held at 12:45 p.m. at the Birmingham Community House.

Dr. Adrian's topic will be "The Role of Township and County in Metropolitan Areas." He is Director of the Institute for Community Development and Service and was appointed by former Governor G. Mennen Williams to serve as director of a Governor's committee to study metropolitan area problems.

Mrs. D. L. Zorn, made the arrangements for this meeting. She has headed a committee within the local league for two years in studying metropolitan area problems.

Dining at DAC

Dining at the Detroit Athletic Club on New Year's Eve were Mr. and Mrs. Phillip R. Flanders of Braueron Drive, Bloomfield Hills and Mr. and Mrs. John Plannery of Pleasant Street, Birmingham. A mid-night breakfast followed the evening of dancing.

Music Guild To Present Dual-Pianists

On Jan. 24, the Cranbrook Music Guild will present Alfred and Herbert Teltschik in a dual piano concert at Kingswood School auditorium at 8:30 p.m. This will be the brothers' 14th concert season in the United States.

Their program will include works by Poulenc, Rachmaninoff, Mendelssohn, Debussy and other composers.

Because of the difficulty of finding two evenly-matched pianos, the two pianists have custom-remodeled a bus to carry two pianos and on which they also travel.

Extra seats will be available at the school auditorium the night of the concert.

YWCA Plans Busy Schedule for Girls

A puppet and marionette workshop, a Saturday morning fun club and classes in sewing, tap dancing, ballet, acrobatics, creative dance and swimming are all included in the Oakland YWCA winter term program which will begin Jan. 14 and after school the week following.

The swimming classes begin today at Donover High School. Registration for all other activities begins Jan. 10 at 9:30 a.m.

To Speak on Russia

Mr. George A. Roeper, founder and headmaster of City and Country School for Gifted Children, will speak before the Adams School PTA meeting Jan. 9 at 8 p.m. He will discuss "Education in Russia Today," and will illustrate his talk with colored slides. Refreshments and social hour will follow.

Off to California

Jane Collier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Collier of Northlawn Drive, Birmingham, returned to Mountain View, Calif., where she is a registered nurse. Jane was home for the holiday.

Albion Coed Is Glad She Had 'Tough' Teacher

"I am happy now that he did make it tough for us," said Lynn Marshall, 18, of her former physics teacher, Stephen Velkoff of Bloomfield Hills High School.

Lynn, a freshman at Albion College, said she was the only one in her freshman chemistry class at the college who was "able to take the examination in stride."

She said she intended to visit Velkoff and thank him personally. Lynn plans to major in education.

Coed Initiated

Linda LamMarre, 237 Tilbury Road, Bloomfield Village, was initiated into Theta Sigma Phi, journalism honorary, at the University of Michigan. She is affiliated with Kappa Delta Sorority.
