SECTION D

It is a matter of accurate record that today human society is without sufficient moral and spiritual leadership, in the right places, this results in too few adults measuring up to high standards . . . and thus too people demand that their various leaders also do likewise. In brief, we seem to have entered an era of dependence upon "things", not enough on "principles."

Speaker to Discuss Interior Gardening

BLOOMFIELD FARMS—Bloomfield Farms branch WNFCA will hold their first meeting of the new year on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Henry R. Carstens, 6896 N. Chuberry Rd. Guest speaker for the evening will be Ruth Taylor. She will talk on "Interior Gardening." Mrs. Harold Dahl will be chairman for the meeting.

MEADOWLAKE—Ten-year-old Deborah Taube, invited 15 of her contemporaries to a skating party, Dec. 27.

The youngsters skated on Meadow Lake, slid down the surrounding hills on their sleds and later gathered in the recreation room at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Harold Rowe on Valley Spring drive for hot dogs, hamburgers and dancing.

WESTCHESTER—The doorway-decorating contest, sponsored by the Westchester branch WNFCA, resulted in some lovely decor.

A lighted candle with three D proportions on the doorway of the Bradford West home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kottinen won first prize.

The second prize wound up in a tie with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Peifer of 804 Roanoke and Mr. and Mrs. James Fisher, 180 Wadsworth dividing the award.

Simulated holly around the Dutch door of the Peifer home was centered with a large poinsettia. An explicated pine, trimmed with clumps of lemons and grapes decorated the double door of the Fisher home.

Big bargains at small cost—that's what you get from the hundreds of classified ads which appear each week in your Birmingham Eccentric.

Kith and Kin Spark Holiday Celebration

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS—Holiday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mehlbacher of Sodon Court were Mrs. Mehlbacher's mother, Mrs. Logan Loring of Oceola and her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Loring of South Bend.

On Christmas day, the family gathering included Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Mehlbacher of Grosse Pointe Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Lept and their two children of Royal Oak and Mr. and Mrs. Arch Lept of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice E. Allen, Jr. invited some 20 friends for a skating party last Friday night on the pond in back of their Berry Road home.

LOCHSLEA—The Carl Laymans of Blossom Lane enjoyed having their children home for the holiday. Nancy was home from Olive College and their son Douglas and his wife and three children came from Indianapolis.

Parents Tune In To Son's Interview

WING LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Glen Berry of Dakota Circle had something exciting to keep them home last week on Tuesday night. Their son Bruce, was interviewed on Radio Station WEXL, Junior Town Meeting.

He is a member of a quartette who call themselves "The Islanders", they play and sing folk songs. Bruce plays a five-string banjo and there are two guitars and another banjo in the group. The other boys in the quartette are Ray Dunne, Bill Pusdy and Steve Collier.

Bride-elect Jill Edington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Edington of Wing Lake Road, entertained her bridesmaids at a get-acquainted luncheon last Thursday. Guests were Janet Richards, Ellen Strong, Virginia Naylor and Earlene Emerick.

A holiday house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Goodfellow of Worthington was Miss Catherine B. Heller, a professor at the University of Michigan. On Tuesday following Christmas Mrs. Goodfellow gave a luncheon honoring Mrs. Leroy Kiefer of Bloomfield Hills.

Guests included Miss Heller, Mrs. Alice Burlingame, Mrs. C. Thoburn Maxwell, Mrs. Felix Bruner, Mrs. Oscar Mezey, Mrs. Marcus Frost, Mrs. Roy J. Hard, Mrs. Preston Wier, Mrs. Calvin A. Donison, Mrs. John P. Hedrick and Mrs. John E. Eckenrode.

Some 20 neighbors were invited to Mrs. Goodfellow's home last Friday morning for coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Remington of Wing Lake road were hosts to some 25 friends at their annual midnight supper party on New Year's Eve.

Clan Gathers For Holiday Festivities

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—For the first time in four years, Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Bertling of Ardmore Drive had all their family together for the holidays. Son Bill is at home and daughter Jane has returned from Chicago to stay.

Their daughter Barbara and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Gimmer and Chip and Barbie, arrived shortly before Christmas from Millburn, N. J.

Another son and his family, Dr. and Mrs. Lee A. Bertling, Jr., and Terri and Toby who live nearby, spent most of their time during the holidays with the senior Bertlings.

Tuesday evening following Christmas Mr. and Mrs. Bertling entertained at open house for friends of the young couple.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bull of Bradley Blvd. are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold King, of Arcadia, Calif. They arrived for the holidays and will return Tuesday. The Kings are former Birmingham residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex A. Terry of Wadlington chose the very last of the holidays to entertain their neighbors. The Terry served breakfast for 15 neighbors who stayed on to watch the football game on TV.

Berkshire WNFCA Plans Smorgasbord For Next Meeting
BERKSHIRES—"Tantalizing Tidbits and Timely Topics" is the intriguing title of the Tuesday meeting of the Berkshire WNFCA, to be held at 12 noon at the home of Mrs. Al Kaye, 32070 Lahser Rd. Members are bringing the "tantalizing Tidbits" for the smorgasbord luncheon. Mrs. Alice Burlingame will furnish the timely topics with her talk on "Gardening Can Pay Dividends."

Mrs. David Barnham will be chairman for the day and Mrs. Rod Brandon, Mrs. N. F. Korn, Mrs. George Webster and Mrs. V. C. Wagner will be co-hostesses.

Old Fashioned Accent Wins Decor Contest

BERKSHIRES—With practically every home in the subdivision sparkling with beautiful decorations, picking two winners in the Berkshire door decorating contest proved somewhat of a problem for the contest judges, Mrs. W. T. McAuley, J. Bostwick and Robert Straley.

After considerable deliberation, the first prize was awarded to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jacobs of 7230 Packhurst Drive for the friendly atmosphere created by the pot-bellied stove with its simulated fire appearing in the window and a doorway framed in palms and date trees bearing the inscription "Holy Night."

A front door with a red background surrounded by tinkling bells and a lighted Christmas tree nearby, won second prize for Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Botaford of 3700
