Retired People Not So Lucky in Tax Decision
To the Editor: The International Revenue Department in compiling the state sales tax chart in line with report of income, certainly did not give the retired individual a fair break. Social security benefits, certain portions of annuities and pensions are not subject to income taxes therefore not reported on the forms. These items could amount to a big percentage on a person's total income and expenditures. It is true one could claim a larger tax expenditure, but I for one do not care to enter into an annual discussion with the Internal Revenue Department.

CROSS ONLY AT CORNERS
WINNER, AAA TRAFFIC SAFETY POSTER CONTEST
Safety Poster
Most of the pedestrians killed or injured in Michigan traffic entered the street at mid-block. In winter, with poor visibility and slippery conditions making driving and walking conditions poor, a jay-walker is in the greatest peril. Therefore, Automobile Club of Michigan has urged pedestrians to cross only at corners. This message is directed primarily at older citizens who make up a large percentage of pedestrian accident victims. For the children, Auto Club has distributed 11,000 full-sized copies of this poster to schools throughout Michigan.
