AFTERMATH

The Christmas "things" that are left from the SALE are to be packed away next Monday. You will be surprised next Christmas to see how beautiful they are at the regular prices.

The DUTCH SALE items will stay through Saturday at the bottom price (unless sold) and then stashed away (they are imperishable) until next Christmas when they will bring in a satisfactory return on our investment.

There are two things we wish to bring to your attention at this time:

1. Amaryllis Bulbs: The regular hybrid bulbs at $4.75 each are $2.50. $4.16 each are $2.50.
The small amaryllis hulbs at 85c each are 2 for $1.25. Both are hybrid, sound, productive, well-bred, easily handled, needing very little care, and a wonderful gift item plus a bargain ONLY because we bought too many.

With bad weather coming up, one should (or two or three should) be prepared with materials to control the ice on your drive, walks, steps and porch.

SAIT—Temperatures above 15° and especially for driveways.

driveways.

CALCIUM CHLORIDE—Temperatures below 15° and for driveways and "well constructed concrete" or flagstone walks.

X-2—For all temperatures and all surfaces regardless of construction.

X-2=$1.50 per 10 lbs. (This material has 30 times the melting capacity of salt and 10 times that of calcium

GLOXINIAS and BEGONIAS
For those who grow both indoors this is the time to start. Those who wish to start begonias indoors for transplanting outdoors should wait (we hate to say this) until about the middle of March.

 \sim

Although we hate trade names the name PERMA-NEST has become a household word in the flower world. These wonderful waterproof trays' provide every means for people who wish to grow plants, start seeds, etc, indoors with a minimum of expense and a maximum of success.

Stop in the shop and see for yourself what you can o with an investment of from 75c to $50.00.

CHRISTMAS NOTES

1. The children were too well bred (or too well fed) to eat all the things on our edible Christmas Tree.

2. The ladies, (not so well fed, apparently) on two demonstration Saturdays, drank 19 gallons of coffee and at emore than 100 dozen Christmas cookies, (Will be glad to give you the name of the cookie cooker.)

3. The ladies inadvertently paid for the goodies—God bless them. God bless them.

4. A child was asked to take some candy home to "what she said was her little brother." When asked his age she said "He is two years older than me." (Therefore, she got two folly-pops and a popcorn ball extra).

5. Since Christmas merchandise was not returnable a careful customer asked if pigeon feed was considered as such.
