

Lathrup Residents Say 'It's a Small World'

LATHRUP — Although they knew the Dorrance W. Trebbus were Florida-bound, Mr. and Mrs. R. Neil Brannan hardly expected to bump into them as quickly as they did in Fort Lauderdale. But that's the way it went and they spent New Year's Eve with them, as guests of Mrs. Ida Stark, who is Mrs. Trebbus's mother. The party included many guests and much fun, the Brannans said. The Brannans attended the Orange Bowl game at Miami and stayed at the Windanor during their 12-day holiday. Mrs. Brannan teaches third grade at Southfield's Lederle School.

A birthday miss is Sara Baughman who will celebrate her sixth birthday on Saturday. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haughman Jr. of Meadowood and Mrs. Baughman has probably evolved a suitable Friday the 13th theme by now, per her search.

will cohost the miscellaneous shower.

Sarah Himes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene N. Himes, reports that the snow at Boyne Mountain was the best she has ever seen herabouts for skiing. She tried the slopes with a group of friends during a recent weekend.

The inaugural ball at Lansing was brightened by one pretty local girl, Connie Brook, of California Drive. She was escorted by Thomas Plesha of Detroit and the couple attended with two other friends. Connie was a treat for tired eyes in her coral silk, strapless organza gown.

Connie spent the holiday vacation at home and returned to the University of Michigan, where she is a freshman, on a bus and before heading home to host a bridal miscellaneous shower for cousin Sharon Wolf of Blackstone Street. The party is scheduled for Sunday and will be a midday luncheon for 20 guests.

Her mother, Mrs. James W. Brook was hostess to some 50 guests Thursday at a buffet dinner in honor of Sharon. The bride-to-be will be married Feb. 11 at St. Bede's Church. The groom is Robert Ovi's of Royal Oak.

Small 'Politico' Lauded By Vice President

CRANBROOK VILLAGE — Although six-year-old Robert Heist didn't bring in any votes for Richard Nixon during the recent state elections, he has a letter to show for his thoughtfulness and zeal. Seems our young friend, who may be a budding politician, sent a letter of condolence on his side to the GOP candidate and just a bit ago received an autographed picture of Mr. Nixon plus a letter commending him and his parents Mr. and Mrs. Elton Heist.
