Cites 'Desperate Need' For Blood Donors Here

There is a desperate need for blood donors from Birmingham and surrounding communities, says. Mrs. George Weinhold, donor recruitment chairman for/the Birmingham. Bloomfield area.

"We wish to call this need to the attention of our local people and urge them to be donors," declared Mrs. Weinhold.

SHE SAID the goal for a blood collection this afternoon is 200 pints, but added that "far less" than that have signed up so far as donors.

Today's collection will be at the Red Cross bloodmobile init at Birmingham Unitarian Church, on Woodward just north of Lone Pine. Hours will be from 2:45 to 4:45 and from 5:45 to 8:45 p.m.

DONORS WISHING to make an appointment may contact Mrs. Clayton Gordon at 1099 Cranbrook, Bir-mingham, or Mrs. Weinhold at 451 Pilgrim Road. From, 15 to 20 volunteer workers will be on hand for the drive

"Blood is medicine," says Mrs. Weinhold, "And it only comes from the veins of healthy people willing to give it."

MRS. WEINHOLD says the Detroit Redonal Blood Center/is down to 200 pints, a danger point. Usually, from 800 to 900 pints a month come from donors in Oakhan County and are used for county residents in county hospitals, she adds.
