Local Boys to Ride In Inaugural Parade

Four local area boys will see history in the making and have tales to tell their grandchildren following Inauguration Day ceremonies Friday, for they have been selected by Culver Military Academy to ride with the Black Horse Troop in the Inaugural Parade.

Academic and citizenship ratings, as well as horsemanship, were contributing factors in the choice of the young men who include First Classman Christopher T. Andreae, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard R. Andreae, 124 Ridgewood Road; First Classman William McCombs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan R. Seaman, Jr., 3915 Quanton Road; Third Classman William E. Hartman III, son of

JA Campaign For Finances Starts Jan. 30

Junior Achievement's 1961 Fund Campaign officially gets underway Jan. 30 in Birmingham under the direction of Milton E. Goulson, Jr., vice president, MacManus, John & Adams.

J.A. will also appeal to business and industry to put more teenagers into the business world via the nation's largest business education organization.

Established in 1959 in the Birmingham area, Junior Achievement now boasts of eight local miniature companies and 220 teenage employees who are gaining first-hand knowledge of the often complex world of business.

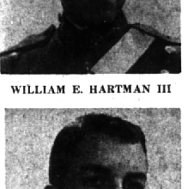

SOLICITED funds will enable the Junior Achievement organization to offer economic education to local youngsters who will be our successors hereafter, too long," according to Wilfred D. MacDonnell, chairman and president of Great Lakes Steel.

MacDonnell announced that the over-all goal of the southeastern Michigan campaign which ends Feb. 22 is $240,000. The goal for the Birmingham area is $4,700. MacDonnell said more than 500 volunteers will work on the drive.

ROBERT P. LYTLE, JR.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hartman, Jr., 423 Birwin, and Third Classman Robert P. Lytle, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert P. Lytle, 7055 Pinewood Court.

THE BOYS ARRIVED in Washington by train this morning and were immediately taken to the Naval Receiving Station at Annapolis, where they were housed and given breakfast.

Early this afternoon, parents who are in Washington—and this includes the Andreaes and the Hartmans—will be able to see with their sons until after dinner. A tour of the City has been arranged for the boys, as well as a dance at Marymount School Friday night. They will return to Culver Saturday.

Troy News Briefs Troy to Present Fairy Tale Play

"The Seven-League Boots," a dramatization of the famous fairy tale, "Hop-o-my-Thumb," will be presented by the Wayne State University Children's Theatre on Friday at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. at Troy High School.

The production will be presented under the sponsorship of the Troy High School Parent-Teacher-Student Association. Troy will host the first performance of the year. Tickets may be reserved by contacting Mrs. John Shevard or Mrs. Donald Laine.

The Wayne State University Children's Theatre tours the Detroit area annually with a stage version of well-known selections from children's literature. This year's production of "The Seven-League Boots" was dramatized by Atrand Harris.

Troy Suspends Sewer Inspector

City Manager David E. Firestone has suspended a part-time sewer inspector indefinitely "for using poor judgment" in his relations with the contractor who installed a sanitary sewer line on Leonard Lane.

Frank Houle, 71 Cloverridge, admitted to city officials that he accompanied a representative of the Motor City Excavating Company of E. Detroit while the company official inquired among homeowners along the sewer line whether they wanted the company to install sewer line extensions from property lines to houses.

The canvassing took place on a Saturday while Houle was off duty.

ACCORDING TO Firestone, homeowners did not complain that Houle had pressured them or in any way tried to sell them on the idea of giving the job to the contractor.

Firestone said Houle had forced the contractor to re-lay about 165 feet of the line when he discovered it was incorrectly laid. "It cost the contractor several hundred dollars extra," said Firestone.

"If there has been any tie between the two," said Firestone, "I doubt if Houle would have made him tear it up."

The city is still investigating the matter and Houle will not be brought back until the investigation is over.

Officer Election, Income Tax Highlight Municipal Meeting

New regional officers were elected at the annual meeting Thursday of the Michigan Municipal League in Southfield on the subject of "Financing Off-Street Parking Facilities," discussing some of the problems that are encountered in such programs and outlining methods by which the programs are or may be financed.

Panelists Edwin E. Whedon, city manager, Mt. Clemens; James H. Perkins, Jr., director of finance, Birmingham; and Wilfred A. Laking, city manager, Ferndale, added commentary, drawing from the experience of their respective municipalities. Moderator of this session was Mayor Young of Swartz Creek.

Councilman William T. Patrick of Detroit was the speaker in the session on "An Income Tax for

Estimate Damage In House Fire At $4,500-$5,000

Damage estimated at between $4,500 and $5,000 was caused by a fire that broke out at a house under construction at Fairview and Oak streets at 2:05 a.m. Wednesday. The house is owned by Gorman O'Brien, 1405 Pilgrim, Birmingham.

Although the cause of the fire was not definitely known, Fire Chief Park Smith suspects it started from the heat of torched used in sweating plumbing joints. The heat could have started sheets of celotex smoldering without workmen noticing it, said Smith.

The two-story brick veneer house was in the last stages of completion with workmen finishing up the plumbing and interior work. The builder is Langer Frink.

Fire Department trucks and firemen from the station spent an hour and 45 minutes at the scene of the fire. The house was insured.

Birmingham Girl Elected Secretary

The University of Detroit's chapter of the Advancement in Management recently elected Gail Gayda secretary. Gail is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gayda, 1355 Northlawn.

A junior in the College of Commerce and Business Administration, Gail is also recording secretary for Delta Delta Sorority and a volunteer worker in William Beaumont Hospital.

The Society for the Advancement of Management was founded at U. of D. in 1949. The club sponsors speakers and affords contacts for job opportunities in the management field.

Municipalities," examining in detail the proposed Detroit plan and its effects on neighboring municipalities, and offering opportunity for clarification of questions on reciprocity provisions, administration, accounting problems, etc. Mayor Philip E. Rowston of Pontiac served as moderator.

LEAGUE DIRECTOR John H. Huss addressed the dinner meeting, discussing the League's 1961 legislative program. Robert Vischer, mayor of Holland and president of the Michigan Municipal League, also spoke briefly about League activities.

Indications were that Detroit's proposed income tax will lie dormant until after city elections later this year.

It was pointed out that some suburban municipal officials would also like their communities to have an income tax but that they won't plug for it openly.

THE LEAGUE is expected to

Two New Local Draft Boards In Oakland County

Two new draft boards have been established to meet the expanding population needs of southern Oakland County, giving the county a total of five boards. It was announced by Colonel Arthur A. Holmes, state Selective Service director.

The new local boards have been organized by subdivision of Local Board No. 66 at Royal Oak, previously one of the largest Michigan local boards with approximately 28,000 registrants. Local Boards No. 321 and No. 323 are designed for more effective operation under all types of emergency conditions.

THE NEW BOARDS along with Local Board No. 66 will continue to operate from offices at 123 South Main Street, Royal Oak. Registrants transferred to Local Boards No. 321 and No. 323 will be advised by mail of the board having jurisdiction over their draft status.

LOCAL BOARD No. 323 will have jurisdiction over Beverly Hills, Bingham Farms, Franklin, Lathrup Village and Southfield, among others.

MEMBERS OF Local Board No. 323 include Charles W. Smille Jr., Linda Court, Bloomfield Hills; John H. Baldwin, 15725 Amherst, Birmingham; Wallace F. Gabler, Jr., 411 Lakeside Drive and Elvio Q. Grossa, 3133 Merrill Ave., both of Royal Oak; and Clayton G. Lilly, 372 McDowell Ave., Ferndale. Government appeal agent is Walter W. Meimberg, 5915 Adams Road, Route 2, Birmingham. Board clerk is Mrs. Louise R. Kimes, 29091 Student, Detroit.

continue its efforts to obtain state legislation to allow cities and villages to levy some sort of broad-based income tax.

League officials agreed that the real and personal property tax has reached the extent of what it can produce in revenue and that any increase would drive business out of the state.
