Newlyweds Residing in Washington

Ensign and Mrs. Edward C. McElligott Jr. are residing in Washington, D. C., following a honeymoon in Miami and Keywest, Fla.

The bride is the former Patricia Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hopkins of Quanton Road, Bloomfield Hills. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. McElligott of Detroit.

The couple was united in a double ring ceremony at a nuptial mass in Maurens Retreat Chapel, Bloomfield Hills, by the Rev. Clement Singer, S. O. D. D. Patricia wore a gown of bouquet taffeta with a chapel train designed with a portrait neckline of aluminum lace and seed pearls with long tapering sleeves. A Swedish crown of seed pearls caught her bouffant illusion veil. She carried a bridal nosegay with white orchids and ribbon streamers.

Maureen Hopkins, sister of the bride, wore a gown of beauty pearls in a style fashioned with a square neckline, cap sleeves and bell-shaped skirt. She carried a crescent bouquet of American beauty roses.

The bridesmaids were Sheila Hopkins and Mrs. Donald Desenaki. They wore gowns of gold peau de soie with cap sleeves and draped bell-skirts. All wore matching veils caught on the crown with a silk organza rose.

Eileen Hopkins was a flower girl for her sister. She wore white taffeta, a crown of seed pearls with a whimsy veil and carried a nosegay of sweetheart roses and the pom-pom.

Michael McElligott, twin brother of the bridegroom, was best man and seating the guests was Donald Desenaki and Anthony Burns.
