

C'brook Alums' Luncheon Clubs Slate Programs

The Oakland County and Detroit luncheon clubs of the Cranbrook School Alumni Association have announced the programs for their January meetings.

The downtown club will meet noon Jan. 26 at the Savoyard Club, Buhl Building. The group will hear a tape recording by Dr. William E. Mayer, former U. S. Medical Corps psychiatrist, who made a study of American prisoners of war in Korea, who were subjected to Communist indoctrination.

THE OAKLAND County group will meet noon Jan. 27 at the Fox and Hounds Inn. Arthur J. Brant, Jr., Cranbrook '36, will present a tape recording and movie about the threat of Communism. Brant, a Birmingham resident, represents the speakers bureau of the U. S. Army Reserve.

Beginning with the January luncheon, the Oakland County group will meet regularly on the last Friday of each month, rather than on Mondays. David Brock, Birmingham, heads the Oakland club, and John Rice, Birmingham, is in charge of Downtown club.
