Beverly Couple Attends National Sports Dinner

EAST BEVERLY—Many VIP's and even a "Veep" (outgoing Richard Nixon) were guests at the Washington (D.C.) Touchdown Club's national sports award dinner last Saturday. So were Dr. and Mrs. Carl L. Raask of 13 Mile.

The Hills couple are well known to capital society (they were married there) and spent the long weekend at the home of Howard de Franceaux of Bethesda, Md.

National Guard bureau information officer, Col. Harry Morris, gave a dinner in their honor. Dr. Raask is division chief surgeon of the Michigan National Guard and a big Little League booster.

Capitol events next weekend hold more interest for local Democrats. The Jack Mazees of Beechwood have invited many to the inaugural at a cocktail party next Saturday. Dining from Beverly Hills are Mrs. Frank O'Donnell, the O. N. Bensons, the William Cochrans, the James Fitzsimons, the John Savoies and the Thomas Kavanaghs.

The James Ginn of Franklin, the James Killians of Royal Oak and the Jack Erwins of Lathrup and the William Oates of Bloomfield are also expected.

Recent newcomers to the Beverly scene include a second daughter, Carol Marie, born Dec. 20, to the H. Richard Vorhees of Dunblaine. A fifth son, Thomas Joseph, was born Nov. 25 to the long Mrs. Josephine of Lecherbie. And Mary Frances Depman (second child, first girl) arrived Dec. 5 at the Joseph Depmans on Buckingham.

WEST BEVERLY—The L. B. Avisons Jr. of Beverly Road hunted last Friday eve's potluck for the Beverly Hills skating club. The 17-couple group will meet again Jan. 29 for a family skating party at Eton Park.

The Otto C. Carlsons of Warwick are back from a two-week trip to Springfield, Ill. They will be commencing during their longer visit with her parents there.

The Milton Fields leave next Sunday for Deerfield Beach, Fla. He will be commencing during their three-months stay there. Only last week the couple hosted a dinner for 20 on Riverside.

The Vince Provenzano of Warwick had only a two-day wardrobe change between recent trips to San Diego to visit newlyweds, the Anthony LaRusso, and to New York for a cousin's wedding. And next week he is off again for the week-long builders' show in Chicago with business partner Joseph Slavik of Lathrup, newly-elected president of the Builders' Association.

The Howard C. Tuckers were here recently to a half-dozen of son Gary's friends from Flushing, their home prior to 1911 Devonshire. He is a procedure writer for Ternstedt division of G.M. Gary resumed his sophomore year at GMU in Flint when they moved in this fall.

Mrs. David Wesley and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Souder, all of Devonshire, are proud of new grandsons, the Robert and William New Year's Eve to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Souder of Bloomfield Village.

The Virgil Burgess of Bedford were honored when the Robert Edmunds, Mark and Colleen, drove all the way from Elvira, Ohio, just to spend last Sunday with them.

Mrs. Edmund Danziger of Bloomfield organized 30 young balletomanes from Mrs. Ray Samuels "Y" class for the "Sleeping Beauty" matinee two Sundays ago. Mrs. Richard Zwickler of Madeline, chairman of the January-February drive explained that one paragoner will "put in" a service or an article (anything from baked goods to baby sitting) which will "drawn from the grab bag" and paid for by the next person.

MESDAMES Louis H. Gauthier of Birwood, James Dillon of Royal Oak, Gerald Murphy of Birmingham and John DePorter of Landerdale are serving on the committee to keep the "grab bag" traveling at least every two days. Fifty donation-canisters and lists will be distributed to the ten parish guilds.

A report on the drive's progress is expected at the Jan. 26 PFA meeting at which Brother N. B. Hueller of Briar Rice High School will speak.

Valley Woods WNFCA to Hold Scholarship Benefit

VALLEY WOODS—Mrs. William S. Kreis of Bellvue will be hostess next week to a luncheon meeting of ESD wives. Among her Beverly guests will be Mrs. W. W. Gilbert of Weston drive, Mrs. J. Frank of Nixon, Mrs. Peter Morot of Kinross and Mrs. Otto Pokorny of Stafford.

The summer home of Mrs. Vincedine of Lathrup was site for six Seaholm girls when she and Mrs. William Kreis of Bellvue organized a weekend at Nub's Nob. Gale and Nancy Madison, Susan Kreis, Barb Bailey of Lecherbie and Jeanie Smith, Donna Schwab and Judy Bishop, all of Birmingham, were their guests.

Did you know that Michigan artist Carolyn Hall is contributing a plaster block print for the top ticket seller at the Beverly school bridge? Room mothers viewed it at the school last Friday.

The auto dealers convention in San Francisco will be first-stop on a two-week vacation for the H. M. Dawsons of Lahser Road. They plan to be Hawaii-bound Jan. 31 at the end of the four-day meeting which the Bob Dawsons of Royal Oak will also attend.

SOUTH BERKSHIRES—The Russell McKinneys of Lathrup are back from a month at the Sun Towers in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. The McKinneys spent Christmas there with former Bloomfielders, the D. L. Brigalls. The following day they were cocktail hosts to 20 of the Plum Hollow crowd vacationing there.

The Russell Harrimans of Woodhaven took last weekend to take their children on a visit to relatives near Cass City.

Mrs. Margaret Ley, 19705 Beverly Road, celebrated her 83rd birthday Wednesday. With her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Ley, as hosts, she entertained friends during the evening.

Beverly Hostess Shamrock Lunch Committee Meets

WEST BEVERLY—Mrs. Harlan Ritz of Riverside, this year's Shamrock luncheon chairman, was coffee hostess Jan. 11 to newly-appointed committee heads for the West Beverly hostess club's annual fund-raiser.

Mrs. Ritz will be co-chairman by Mrs. Herbert Ashcraft of Devonshire and Mrs. Alphonse Staelhof of 14 Mile Road. Mrs. William Bailey of Loehrbie will be advisor. Shamrocks will be handled by Mrs. G. E. Dettlinger of Millcrest with Mrs. Hugh Miller of Devonshire advising.

MRS. HAROLD GREENWOOD of Beacon field is in charge of decorations for the Birmingham Golf Club. Models will be selected by Mrs. William O'Rourke of Hillcrest and advisor Mrs. R. J. Gilbert of Norchester.

Mrs. Edna J. Keith Stuart of Buckingham and L. E. Bernardini of Birwood will handle tickets. Mrs. Robert Horner of Hillcrest will provide musical accompaniment for the lunch and show.

Traveling Grab Bag Latest Fund-Raiser For School Library

BEVERLY HILLS—A "traveling grab bag" is the latest fund-raiser innovated by Our Lady Queen of Martyrs to help reach the 1,000-book school library goal.

Mrs. Richard Zwickler of Madeline, chairman of the January-February drive explained that one paragoner will "put in" a service or an article (anything from baked goods to baby sitting) which will "drawn from the grab bag" and paid for by the next person.

MESDAMES Louis H. Gauthier of Birwood, James Dillon of Royal Oak, Gerald Murphy of Birmingham and John DePorter of Landerdale are serving on the committee to keep the "grab bag" traveling at least every two days. Fifty donation-canisters and lists will be distributed to the ten parish guilds.
