Of Boyhood Heroes—Dreams; Or, 'the Reign of Prince Hal'

It was Oct. 10, 1945. The announcer's voice was at a fever-pitch as it broke through the static of the little kitchen radio...

I WAS eight-years-old at the time of the Tigers' happiest moment. Newhouse was my hero. My life's ambition was to shake the hand of the greatest southpaw in Tiger annals...

DURING the winter months, Newhouse works with the Oakland County Juvenile Court. He is also got the award in '44 as the best in town...

Falcons, Maples Defeated; Dunne Suffers Fracture Seaholm Groves

It was a sad week for Seaholm. Swim and Basketball teams were soundly trounced, and cage star Dunne fractured a bone in his ankle last Thursday during practice...

THE PREVIOUSLY undefeated Maple Swimming squad was shocked into their first defeat of the season...

BOB SAYLE, 6-5, will move up from forward to take Dunne's place at center, and Steve Willis will move into Sayle's position...

IN THE SECOND stanza, the Maples continued their hot shooting and strong defensive game...

MEANWHILE, Port Huron came to life. The Hurons collected 14 points to the Maples' six in the third quarter...

NEWHOUSE and I sat in the clean. Before beginning the evening's dinner...

BY JOE CADARIN Sports Editor "Whenever one of my good swimmers is in an exceptionally close race, I get as excited as a little boy..."

HIS PET PEEVE, or dislike, is what he calls the "shirt-tail" crowd. These are the boys with loose shirt-tails hanging out of their trousers...

I LEARNED a lot from University of Michigan Swimming Coach Gus Stager, who was U. S. Olympic swimming mentor last year...

OTHER FALCONS swimmers weren't so fortunate. Only other individual winner was Bob Sutton in the 50-yard freestyle...

THE IMPERPERENCED basketball Falcons lost another one last Tuesday at Lamphere. Final score was 63-39...

LAMPHERE had ten men in the scoring column with Phil Fifer getting 18 points. Only four men scored for Groves...

"THE FALCONS are about two years away," said Coach Tom Carson. "We have some good 9th graders coming up, and we don't have any seniors on this year's squad..."

THE TALLER Lamphere centers used their height advantage to gain control of the backboards and effectively use a fast-break offense...

"We lack height, depth and experience, but I think that with the passing of time, we'll get better. Control of the backboards and offensive use of a fast-break offense..."
