Skaters Have Ball At Inaugural Party

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS—While Washington domed formal attire for Friday night's Inaugural Ball, some 40 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice B. Allen, Jr. danced in skating clothes at the Allen's inaugural ball. A skating party at the Allen's Derry Road home preceded the ball and guests found it easier to dance in skating clothes than to skate in ball gowns.

Highlights of their trip was the Parade of Roses and the Rosebowl game. Hoagberg returned aboard after the holidays and Mrs. Hoagberg remained with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thinker.

Finnish-Style Skating Benefits Small Fry

WALNUT LAKE—A bit of old Finland has been added to Walnut Lake through the courtesy of the Finnish-American Club of Detroit and especially through the efforts of Henry Jokela, 5498 Sunnycrest Road.

The youngsters can now skate on ice protected from the cold wind by a circle of some 100 pine trees. Jokela offered his services and knowledge, gained as a boy in his native Finland, in chopping holes in the ice and erecting the trees.

The Walnut Lake activities of the club, of which Jokela is a charter member also include a summer program.

In a sauna on the lake shore, built by the club some fifteen years ago, members gather each Thursday evening for a steam bath followed by a repast of delicious Finnish food.

On St. John's Day, June 25, club members hold their midsummer celebration at the lake. Sitting around a huge bonfire, they sing fine old Finnish hymns to drive away the bad spirits, another Finnish tradition.

Noah Potti, of Detroit is club president.

Did you ever want to be a millionaire? Walnut Lake area residents and their friends will have the opportunity when they attend the Walnut Lake Men's Club millionaire's party Saturday at 8:30 a.m. at the club rooms on Walnut Lake Road.

Tickets for the party are available at the Walnut Lake Food Market, Walnut Lake Hardware, the Ed Dowling Pharmacy and at the clubrooms.

All area residents and their friends are cordially invited to attend and enjoy an evening of fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Ofenstein entertained the eight members of their bridge club at the annual January birthday party last Saturday evening at their home on Putnam Drive.

The group began their get-togethers some 20 years ago, with the children included at the monthly gathering.

Now with all the children grown, the four couples enjoy dinner and an evening of bridge.

Through the intervening years the four members whose birthdays fall in January have been photographed annually, assuming the same poses in the original picture.

Looking at past pictures, and reminiscing brought many a chuckle from birthday celebrants Mrs. H. C. Clark of Birmingham, Mrs. Elmore Hansen and Eugene Lanna of Detroit and the host of the party, Julian Ofenstein.
