Cost of unhappy living Shows in Lost Manpower

This is the third in a series of six articles based on actual, typical case histories from the files of Family Service of Oakland County. The material is designed to protect the families served.

By ROBERT JAMES Executive Director Family Service of Oakland County

Tom, a graduate engineer had already gone through several good jobs because he was constantly dissatisfied. When he came to Family Service, a Torch Drive Agency, having been referred by his employer from the job into which he had put his family and money to another job.

This employer saw his long-range possibilities and felt that letting Tom continue to run away was not the answer.

Tom knew this, too, and that was why he readily came to our agency. He knew this running was...

FRANKLIN WOODS - Adults learned to skate the Hokey Pokey, which was a new and exciting game. Franklin Woods Association skating party held Saturday evening at Elton Park.

Our Federal Trade Commission is cracking down on fly-by-night operators who handle tires, shrubs and other plants and sell them through the public through false and misleading advertising claims.

Check with your local Better Business Bureau. Some common names are misleading. Beware of the "amazing climbing" and "super growing" plants.

Beware of tremendous bargains. Pay special attention to the guarantee. Beware of the "amazing climbing" and "super growing" plants.

THE BROOKLYN BOTANIC Garden has published a booklet, "Breeding Ornamental Plants," which is a most interesting and useful guide for the home gardener.

Thousands of readers each week - that's a classified market you can't afford to miss. Other people are looking for the same kind of plants you have no buyers for.

Where Customer-Consideration comes first. The favorite varieties are called P-1 hybrids which are the result of crossing two lines of petunias. These seeds are saved and you buy the first generation.

One plant will have 200 flowers pollinated by hand. This is a task...

Tom needed to see that his dependence on other people's approval was a flashback to his childhood. His present capacities did not need to be tested to be afraid of criticism.

Because he is different than his first wife, he does not need to have to run away. Otherwise, he wouldn't have wanted help.

AS TOM could see, understand and then handle these feelings, he settled down on the job and produced the way his employer and he knew he could.

ACTUALLY, Tom knew his father drove his mother out and that his father was really a very nice man. From that time on, Tom wasn't sure that he, himself, could take the responsibility of raising a child.

Under the national theme for the 51st anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scouts of America, "Strengthen America's Character Counts," the area's 9,000 Cub Scouts and their parents and volunteer leaders will be involved in activities with public officials.

Highlighting the entertainment for the evening will be two featured performances from the Lawrence Walk Troup, JoAnn Cason, the versatile blond-haired pianist-accommodator and Jack pianist-accommodator and tap dancer.
