Birmingham - Bloomfield Hills Society Notes

By JOYCE KLARR MI 6-1858

Keep this under your pillow. It was almost as crowded as the inaugural ball, and almost twice as elegant (and almost twice as Republican) and from what we could see, everyone was having a lot more fun.

When referring to last Saturday's annual dinner dance given by the Sh. Dupont's Guild of Cranbrook, Mr. and Mrs. John Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. O'Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. Richard West and Mrs. Dorothy West (progressive cocktails on a self demand schedule).

AT NINE o'clock, however, everyone converged on the Pavilion on Lone Pine Road and were greeted by Mrs. Frank McCartney and Mrs. Harry Watson Jr., co-chairmen of the evening. Gold and white tables (it smelled so good I wasn't sure whether I was at a wedding or a wedding reception) were decorated with black and white balloons covered the ceiling.

Mrs. Weasling Wright was in a gold madeleine gown and white sheath by Pucci; Mr. Richard Daragh wore a Calif. Champagne tuxedo; Mrs. R. T. O'Reilly featured a jet black lace gown by Harvey Bern; Mrs. Jerry McCrehan wore a full skirt, Mrs. Charles Himehich sparred in an emerald green sari; and Barbara Seaver wore a bouffant white peau d'ange.

Mrs. Richard Tread's black sheath was trimmed with wide fluting at the hemline. Mrs. John Warner wore a creative velvet gown; and Mrs. Stephen Booth was in a draped red chiffon. Mrs. Garvin Bowen wore burnt orange satin, and Mrs. Charles White was in a full-length tulle with beaded bodice.

Others among the dining and dancing couples included Mr. and Mrs. Alan Brennan, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Oldberg, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Finn, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bahr, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. William Downey, Mr. and Mrs. Fran Loud, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Dutton, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hutton, Mr. and Mrs. Paul George, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McCrehan, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. David Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Cuffin, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Moriarty, Mr. and Mrs. Alice R. Smith, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Robert Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jones (her husband was snow-bound in New York) and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Porter.

The Party's Over

WELL, I'VE thrown away my capsize bag and I'm wishing Jack Kennedy all the best (I bet he's relieved).

I've found an old Oleg Cassini dress which I was about to consign to the rummage sale. I'll scissor a few feet off the bottom and make it fairly presentable. I've always liked hats worn well back on the head and I have no objection to pearls—but I REFUSE, ABSOLUTELY REFUSE, to turn myself into a brunette with wigs over one eye—even if the bill passes a congress.

MICHIGAN IS EVERYTHING FOR INDUSTRY

The people of Michigan are proud of their state's industrial accomplishments. Its manufacturing plants produce everything from automobiles to xylophones. One reason is that Michigan has so much of what industry needs.

Michigan has abundant sources of both raw and semi-finished materials. Michigan possesses unmatched production know-how in both management and labor. Michigan has great market advantages. Michigan has livability! Water? Michigan is rightly named the Water Wonderland.

This is the first in a series of advertisements to be printed as a public service by this newspaper, each advertisement to describe one of Michigan's advantages for industry. The series will show the attractions our state offers, what it personifies for industry; in reality, what MICHIGAN IS.

Help carry Michigan's message to the nation. Clip these ads and mail them to people in other states with your own comment. Let's talk up Michigan and its advantages for industry. Together, we can assure a greater future for all of us.

This ad is one of a series published as a public service by this newspaper in cooperation with the Michigan Press Association and the Michigan Economic Development Department.
