

Couple Repeats Vows In Episcopal Church

Given in marriage by her father, Wymie Joy Fortune became the bride of Robert G. Asperger Saturday at a 8 o'clock candlelight ceremony at St. John's Episcopal Church, Royal Oak.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Canon John Shuffelt and Canon Charles C. Jatho in the presence of 250 guests. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fortune of Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. George Asperger of Dearborn.

THE BRIDE wore a white silk organza gown with a chapel train. The bodice appliqued with alençon lace with sequins and seed pearls. Modifications of the same were scattered on the full skirt. A crown of crystal secured her veil. Joy carried a crescent of Amazon lilies, gardenias, ivy and stephanotis.

Ann Fortune, sister of the bride, served as honor attendant, wearing a sheath of beige silk organza over aqua taffeta. Bridesmaids were Nancy Fortune, Janet Webb, both of Birmingham, and Lavon Hart of Hillsdale.

THEIR DRESSES were sheaths of aqua organza over aqua taffeta. The four attendants' headpieces were aqua horsehair picture hats and carried a combination of pink carnations and purple baby mums and ivy on a sequins purse given by the bride.

Cynthia and Katherine Owen, nieces of the groom, served as flower girls, wearing perky white organza dresses over aqua taffeta. They carried small baskets of flowers and wore an ivy band in their hair.

Daniel Asperger served as best man for his brother, and ushers were Charles Davies, Dale Thayer of Dearborn, Richard Allen of Rochester, N. Y., and Robert Fortune of Birmingham.

THE BRIDES mother chose a dress of beige shantung and lace with a soft pink hat and a pink cymbidium orchid pinned on her beige purse. Mother of the bridegroom chose a pink eyelid, embroidered with beige, dress and wore beige accessories. She also pinned her green cymbidium orchid on her hair.

A reception followed in the dining room of the church. The new Mrs. Asperger changed to a white and black dress suit.
