

'Fearsome Frank'

FRANKLIN — Summer camper Jeff Bauman makes friends with Fearsome Frank, the demon dragon, who played a stellar role in the Franklin Summer Camp's pet parade last Friday. The second and last three-week period of the camp program, held at Franklin School, starts Monday. Enrollment is still open and applications available from local merchants. Held every weekday, from 9 a.m. to noon, the summer camp offers a full sports and crafts program as well as music and other special interests to area children. Every Friday is special events day.

Junior Players to Give Two Shows in August

FRANKLIN — Junior straw hat theater will have its fifth season proving that it wears well with Franklin audiences. Readings to cast two full three-week shows for production the last weekend in August, were held Thursday and Sunday by members of the Franklin Village Junior Players. Mrs. Donald Hacker will be the sponsor; advisor and director of a cast doing "Holding For Lovers" while Mrs. John Baker Jr. will have another cast working on "Murder Takes the Stage". Mr. and Mrs. Ray Adams and Mrs. Grant Sivier offer additional support where and when needed. Rehearsals for both casts begin this week at the church and will be held every Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings. Arrangements to produce the shows in a tent on the village green, August 28 through 31 will require approval of this village council, now that such activities are under the jurisdiction of the green's new landowners. The Franklin Community Association is sponsoring a Family Night at the ballgame July 18. The Tigers play Baltimore. A bus has been chartered to transport fans and will leave the church parking lot at 7 p.m. Reservations can be made with Eric Gosh, Oliver Garwood, Gordon McAlpine or Bob Smith. The joint's jumping at the Russell Vaillancourts on Woodside. Here to visit them for about 10 days have been the Robert Vaillancourts who forsook the Winwood Hills at 16951 Georgia. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce C. Stevenson moved in with their three boys almost three Fridays ago but they went on vacation soon after. Chris, 14, accompanied his parents on a visit to relatives in Jersey City. The camp was off to "camp" at Holly, while Kenneth, 4, stayed with his married sister, Mrs. Lorne Stata of Madison Heights. The former Fernalde family are active in "Y" affairs, though she joins bowling buddies on league nights. He is owner of the Precision Tool Repair Co., Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Emil DuRooks of Kirtshire returned recently from a week's trip to Jamaica. The DuRooks were members of a Ford Motor Company charter flight-out. They spent several days at Bay Rock Hotel in Montego Bay and five days at the Aravak Hotel. Deep-sea fishing, touring the island and relaxing took up most of their time. While there, the Beverly Hills couple meet Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shurg, 14 Mile Road neighbors who were there with a vacationing group from Dodge. The Ted DuCharmes of Birwood are spending their vacation in Colorado with their daughter's family, the Robert Knappes of Henver. The DuCharmes' children, Larry, kegon and their friends on Lake Michigan. The Dan Ollas had a success from society for four days, at least, and scooted to their cabin in the woods near Alpena. Friends of the Richard Fords are looking forward to a renewal of fun-fests when they return to Franklin after two years in Kokomo, Ind. Expected to move back by the end of July, the Fords will make their home on Hersherville. Mrs. Robert Kerr and children will be at White Hall all this month while father, Bob, divides his time between here and there, as often as time permits. A wren of a Lunz was held by the David K. Wirths of Charles Lane last Saturday. For their annual BIG party, the Wirths created a Hawaiian atmosphere for 130 guests, complete with water ballet and suckling pig. Served on tables outdoors in the exotic light of flaming torches and candles, guests entered the spirit of the evening wearing apparel to suit from mu-umus to grass skirts and beach-comber togs smothered in colorful paper leis. Rothann Kramp, an aqua ballerina of the Pontiac Catalina swimming group performed numbers from "South Pacific" with another member of the cast. Miss Kramp is Mrs. Wirth's sister. The girls gave an enchanting demonstration of mermaid magic in the Wirth pool. Franklin certainly gets a big bang out of the Fourth, thanks to their neighbors, the David Schillers of Lake Hills drive. By dusk, family-laden cars head up the hill and cluster in the fields to see a lovely aerial display, courtesy of the Schillers. When the Krogers converge its a picnic. Twenty-six members of the clan, Art Kreger's six brothers and sisters and their families, descended on their scenic road home Tuesday for a pot-luck supper and Fourth of July party.

Beverly Hills Residents Enjoy Holiday Weekend

EAST BEVERLY — The Fourth of July — just a 24-hour coffee break for lots of clock-punchers, but the fourth day of a long, restful weekend for the lucky. The William Shiveleys of Georgia spent all four days at her parents' cottage at Macatawa on Lake Michigan. The Victor Tarabusch of Pierce went vagabonding in the Upper Peninsula — stopping when and where they pleased at spots like the Falls and Copper Harbor. The Ken Newmans returned yesterday from Miami where his frat convened. Twins Pam and Jan visited grandma in North Carolina. There really are new neighbors at 16951 Georgia. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce C. Stevenson moved in with their three boys almost three Fridays ago but they went on vacation soon after. Chris, 14, accompanied his parents on a visit to relatives in Jersey City. The camp was off to "camp" at Holly, while Kenneth, 4, stayed with his married sister, Mrs. Lorne Stata of Madison Heights. The former Fernalde family are active in "Y" affairs, though she joins bowling buddies on league nights. He is owner of the Precision Tool Repair Co., Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Emil DuRooks of Kirtshire returned recently from a week's trip to Jamaica. The DuRooks were members of a Ford Motor Company charter flight-out. They spent several days at Bay Rock Hotel in Montego Bay and five days at the Aravak Hotel. Deep-sea fishing, touring the island and relaxing took up most of their time. While there, the Beverly Hills couple meet Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shurg, 14 Mile Road neighbors who were there with a vacationing group from Dodge. The Ted DuCharmes of Birwood are spending their vacation in Colorado with their daughter's family, the Robert Knappes of Henver. The DuCharmes' children, Larry, the Harry Kottiers of Twoe Drive have returned from a week of leisure at Brighton. The Gordon McAlpines of Rossy Road made the most of the long weekend by heading to Muskegon and Sally, are along on the three-week trip. The James O'Callaghans of Marquette were in Cleveland recently. While Dad took care of business, Mom and the children enjoyed the brief holiday away from home. Mr. and Mrs. John Humenny of Northcreek recently entertained visitors from New Orleans. Mrs. Humenny's cousin, Mrs. Thomas Shotts, and her children, Michele and Patricia enjoyed their stay which included watching 10-year-old Gary Humenny participate in a Little League Baseball game. Just last week Gary entertained his cousin, David Humenny from Detroit. The boys and Gary's sister, Debbie, 7, spent time swimming in the pool of the Roy Ferguson, neighbors on W. 14 Mile Road. Eight-month-old Sandy got in on the act with a brief session of splashing while her mother played the role of life guard. Dr. and Mrs. Maynard R. Bailey of Arlington returned recently from Indian River where they deposited their daughter, Christina at Can-It-Cam Lodge for her third consecutive stay. Brother Bob, as soon as Little League play is over, will attend Camp Davaja at Brighton.
