

Certificate for Play Awarded Local Writer

LATHRUP—Mrs. Vincent Zetell, former Lathrup correspondent for The Birmingham Eccentric, remaining true to her writing profession, has received a certificate of award from the Community Theatre Association of Michigan for a one-act dramatic comedy.

The play, "The Stone Unturned," revolves around the visit of an extravagant mother-in-law and is "neither autobiographical nor biographical—just dreamed up," according to its author.

To add to the excitement in the Zetell household, Vince leaves Saturday for a two-week business trip to London, Wales and other British locales. He will travel for Wolmer Tube Division of Calumet Squared's regatta in the "Jo-Jo," owned by the William Booths.

More about birthdays: A happy one for Joan MacArthur of Meadwood who chucks up her 12th today. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. MacArthur, Joan held her party June 24—so all the camera could enjoy the fun.

With 16 girl friends for lunch and games, Joan topped the afternoon as she hosted the girls for swimming at Walnut Lake.

Another birthday girl is Laura Maser who will be a big seven on Monday. Her birthday party will be held Saturday with several girl friends in to help her celebrate. Her parents are the John Masers.

"It was the most beautiful night," says Mrs. Robert Raisch, recalling the Navy League Ball June 27. She and her husband, who is a "week-end warrior" at Grosse Ile with the Marine Reserves, attended the gala event at the Little Club and were delighted to find the weather just right for dancing outdoors.

Another dinner dance on the agenda for the busy couple was at the Old Club during the holiday weekend, which they spent with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Lincoln Gibson Jr., at their summer home on St. Clair Plats.

The family made the trip in Raisch's classic Rolls Royce, making it a point to return to Lathrup in time for the annual fireworks display.

SOUTHFIELD—She's a redhead, just like her mother and we're all still floating on air," was the proud comment made by new pop star Michael Gladchum of Red Leaf Lake.

Reason for all the excitement is little Cheryl Lyne, now two months old, who arrived May 26.

Dynamite Explodes In Hand of Youth On W. B'field Lake

WEST BLOOMFIELD—A 20-year-old Warren youth suffered the loss of his right hand Tuesday when a dynamite stick he was holding went off. He was using the dynamite in place of firecrackers.

Anthony Miller, 21037 Panama, was reported in satisfactory condition Wednesday by St. Joseph Mercy Hospital officials.

MILLER AND A friend, Thomas Kida, 18, of 4635 E. Nine Mile Road, Warren, were tossing sticks of dynamite from the middle of Upper Straits Lake in West Bloomfield Township, when the accident happened.

The dynamite, according to police, was short-fused.
