Adams Plaza Barber Shop, 801 Adams, Birmingham, recently opened its doors in the Adams Office Plaza, Stanley J. Payne, owner, makes necessary preparations for a typical business day. Payne resides at 2647 Dorchester, Birmingham. He formerly worked at a barber shop at Telegraph and Long Lake.

new 52-lane bowling alley on West Maple in the fast growing Telegraph-Maple area. The new bowling center will be known as Strike 'N' Spare.

Head man is John L. Brown, president of Great Lakes Bowling Corp. The corporation has a 17 bowling alleys in operation, and one other under construction, besides the one on W. Maple, which is scheduled to open this fall.

Byron Ariles is the latest addition to the staff of Jullard's Bloomfield Plaza store. He counts over 16 years experience in the fitting of children's shoes.

We welcome Van Furniture & Upholstery's new branch store to Birmingham. Dale Smith, store manager of the Birmingham store at 999 S. Hunter in the building formerly occupied by the Harrison-Fringle Co. The company also operates a plant in Detroit, where many of the furniture pieces are made.

Carl Luckenbach is the architect in charge of the extensive remodeling now going on at The McClellan-Ball Co's store on S. Woodward.

Mr. Ball's garden supply headquarters will have a complete face lifting on the outside, and a more efficient arrangement inside. The offices are being partitioned off; a larger entrance will be created to the patio, and that also will be changed. New lights and new fixtures will round out the job. Business as usual, of course!
