

A few days ago the people of the United States commemorated the 185th year of our Declaration of Independence... a determination to be free from the tyrannies of a foreign King. Our nation and its people have gone far, since then, toward the colonists' goal of... life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. The freedom they bequeathed us now is menaced by citizen complacency.

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN

Thursday, July 13, 1961

SECTION
C

Polynesian Isle of 'Forestbrook' Scene of Luau

Aloha!

Mrs. John Bekolay (left) of Evergreen Road, Beverly Hills, greets Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard Willett Jr., of Pilgrim Road, Birmingham, Saturday evening at a luau on the Bekolays' estate. The Hawaiian party will benefit the St. Jude Hospital Research project, aiding leukemia stricken American children.

Guests Go Native

Attired in sarongs and bright colored shirts Saturday evening at the John Bekolays' annual luau were committee members (from left) Mrs. William Gilmore of Waltham Road, Beverly Hills; Donald A. Dittreich of Chelsea Drive, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Warner. Other committee members were the T. Kavanagh's, William Nerns, N. Kaldor, J. Murphys, Lorry McAlonans, Thomas Howards and Eleanor Slavik.

At Hawaiian Party

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hacker of Colony Hill Drive, Franklin, admire the natural waterfall and rock garden bordering a section of the dance floor at the Bekolays' estate. For the annual event, Mr. Bekolay and sons, Dennis and Mark, constructed a grass-roofed Hawaiian style outdoor bar and bandstand.

Birmingham Girls Pack Summer Bags for Camp

A hundred and 30 girls between the ages of 9 and 16 have arrived at the YWCA's Camp Cavell on Lake Huron for the summer's second camping session, July 8-21. Among the girls from Birmingham are Linda J. Sten, 1062 Midland; Susan Turner, 1721 Winthrop; Holly Turner, 1721 Winthrop; Patricia Wessels, 2152 Totentham. JENNIFER Wills, 852 Puritan; Christine Busby, 18155 W. 14 Mile Road; Nancy Solover, 3135 Middlebury Lane; Amy Kell, 1810 Oak; Susan Lyman, 5395 Hickory Bend; Holly McCain, 788 Puritan; Sharon Mork, 1860 Pine; Susan Dunn, 150

Cranbrook Road; Karen Franklin, 1859 Hazel. Patricia Heyl, 1185 Latham; Barbara Hill, 1108 Fox Chase Road; Sally Benedict, 1746 Latham Road; Emily Cosner, 1150 Fairfax and Belle Jo Davidson, 3791 Wedgewood Drive.

ENTERING as general campers, the girls will follow a schedule of activities which include swimming, tennis, horseback riding, crafts, archery and badminton. Registrations for the third and fourth sessions, July 22-Aug. 4 and Aug. 5-18 are still being accepted.

Members Working On Antique Show

Taking advantage of the summer's lull in activities were committee chairman for the 11th annual Piety Hill Antique Show. The group met at the home of co-chairman Mrs. Martha Hanson. The show sponsored by the DAR will be held Sept. 20-23 at the Birmingham Community House.

Judi Shelby In 'Oklahoma'

Judi Shelby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Shelby of Wing Lake Road, Birmingham, appeared with Dorothy Collins in Carousel at Northland last week and this week in Oklahoma, also at Northland.

The family moved from Winnetka, Ill., six months ago. Judi is a junior at the University of Wisconsin and is a member of Phi Beta Phi. She has played summer theatre and last June was a model at Radio Music Theatre in New York. She's majoring in dance.

Student in Chorus

With the Oberlin Players on Cape Cod is Jane T. Anderson, Oberlin College junior from Birmingham. She will be in the chorus. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Anderson of Lenox Drive, Birmingham.

Reporting on Convention

Kappa Deltas attending convention at Roanoke, Va., are (from left) Mrs. Donald L. Weldon of Devon Brook Drive, Bloomfield Hills, president of South Oakland County Alumnae Association; Mrs. Edwin F. Lau of Ayrshire Drive, Bloomfield Township, Lambda Province president; and Mrs. John W. Clark of Henrietta Street, Birmingham, area delegate and resident Detroit Metropolitan Council of Kappa Delta.

Kappa Delta Alumnae Return From Trip

Three members of Kappa Delta alumnae association, South Oakland County, returned recently from the 34th national convention enthused about the philanthropic work being done on the national level.

Representatives from the local group were Mrs. Donald L. Weldon, Mrs. Edwin F. Lau and Mrs. John W. Clark. The convention was held at Roanoke, Va., and the theme was "The Golden Cord of Service."

MEMBERS OF THE local Kappa Delta alumnae are actively working this summer on plans for their annual Import-Export Fair, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Stuart M. Totty.

All proceeds from the fair benefit the local philanthropy, the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children. Importers from all major countries will again have booths and will present a wide variety of interesting and unusual articles. The fair is scheduled for Nov. 2 at Showcase, Inc.

Suburban Scene

By Shirley Adams
Society Editor

Candidate Feted at Coffee Hours

With less than two weeks remaining before the primary election for Con-Con delegates, many local hostesses have planned coffee hours this week and next for candidate Jean Kerr Ketchum. Mrs. French McCain opened her home yesterday to Puritan Road neighbors who came for coffee and to hear Mrs. Ketchum's ideas on the upcoming constitutional convention.

Mrs. George Malone of 348 Wellesley is entertaining at a similar affair this morning and this evening Mrs. Richard James of 2361 Windemere has invited friends in to meet Mrs. Ketchum. Mrs. Lynn A. Townsend of 5991 Orchard Bend will entertain Monday. That afternoon the candidate will go to Bloomfield Hills to a party co-hosted by Mrs. R. G. English and Mrs. V. C. Genn at Mrs. English's Dunston Road home.

ON WEDNESDAY, Mrs. Ketchum will be honored at three parties. Mrs. Glen Gilbert of 656 S. Chester will give a 10 a.m. coffee. Mrs. John Bryant of 423 Berwyn will entertain at a 2 p.m. punch and cake reception for her former Westchester Village neighbors. Mrs. Malcolm Welty of 3666 Burning Bush will give an 8 p.m. party.

Mrs. Peter H. Loomis, 1548 Dorchester, is inviting friends to a coffee hour next Thursday and that evening Mrs. Alfred Davock will entertain at 348 Aspen. President of the Birmingham Association of University Women, Mrs. Preston Weir, will give a coffee hour on the 21st. The local AAUW is actively supporting Mrs. Ketchum's campaign for Con-Con delegate.

MRS. KETCHUM is a former state president of the LWV and a member of the executive board of Citizens for Michigan. During her terms both organizations worked for the calling of a state constitutional convention. When her two children, now grown, were in school, Mrs. Ketchum was a local PTA president and scout leader. She is a former vice president of the Birmingham Community House.

Home from Western Trip

Attorney and Mrs. Vernon M. Fitch, their son Vernon II and daughter Debra have just returned to their home on Middlebury Lane, Bloomfield Hills, after a tour to California and Mexico. They viewed the colorful Rockies from the top of their Vista-Dome Streamliner, then stopped to see the annual Artists Fair on streets roped off in the center of San Francisco.

Artists from the western states displayed their works on sidewalk easels and the famous East Indian dancers from Punjab, were the highlight of the street dancing, which also included the well-known Israeli dancers.

WHILE HOUSEGUESTS of Mrs. Fitch's sister in Orange, a suburb of Los Angeles, they enjoyed surf-riding in the Pacific at Laguna and Newport beaches. Disneyland proved to be an enchanted wonderland for young and old, but the highlight of the entire trip came when they saw "death in the afternoon" at the spine-tingling bullfights in Tijuana, Mexico. The Fitches' trip was culminated by a steamer cruise to Catalina Island. A barbecue is being planned to show color movies of their trip.

Too Early for Christmas?

Committee members of Planned Parenthood League Inc. are busy working on its third annual Christmas Mart, which will be held Nov. 8-9 in the Veteran's Memorial Bldg. (See SUB SCENE, 2-C)

Karen Jeannette Senob Weds Richard Canfield

Immanuel Lutheran church in Detroit was the setting for a candle-light marriage ceremony recently, at which Karen Jeannette

Senob became the bride of Richard Charles Canfield.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Senob of Farmington and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Canfield of Birmingham.

Elbow length sleeves, a sabbina necktie and two panels of narrow lace enhanced the simplicity of the bride's full-skirted gown. A simple hand crown held her fingertip veil in place. She carried a crescent bouquet of white roses.

PEGGY Kraeborg of Winnetka, Ill., a sorority sister of the bride, attended her as maid of honor. She wore a white organza street length dress with olive green accessories, and carried a crescent bouquet of yellow roses and white daisies.

Dawn Beneath of Birmingham, also a sorority sister, and Susan Canfield, sister of the groom, were her bridesmaids. Ruth Senob, sister of the bride, attended her as a junior bridesmaid. Charlotte Miller of Ferrisde, a cousin, was her flower girl. All wore white organza street-length dresses with yellow accessories and carried presents of white daisies.

James Canfield, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen, also serving as ushers, were, Clyde Beck, David Gore and Ross Dodge.

THE MOTHER of the bride chose a moss green lace sheath jacket dress with beige accessories. The mother of the groom wore a beige sheath dress with lace bodice and elbow length sleeves and matching accessories. Both wore corsages of cymbidium orchids. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church Fellowship Hall. A sleeveless pleated duster dress was chosen by the bride for travel. The only color complementing her completely white outfit was provided.

(Continued on 2C)

Plans Underway

Mrs. John Armstrong (left) of Randall Court, Birmingham, and Mrs. Brink Chickering of Suffield Road, Birmingham, are discussing plans for the Junior League's annual Follies scheduled for Nov. 14 and 15 at Birmingham Theatre, with Tom Chatham, representative of Jerome H. Cargill Producer. Proceeds will benefit Pontiac State Hospital.

Entertainment Committee

The husbands have the titles, but there is work for the wives, too, in planning for the National Metal Congress and Exposition, Oct. 23-27 at Cobo Hall. It is sponsored by the American Society for Metals. Planning to keep the women entertained while their husbands attend lectures are (from left) Mrs. Allan R. Putnam, wife of the managing director of the ASM; Mrs. Jack E. LaBelle and Mrs. Robert Boswell, both of Bloomfield Township and Mrs. Donald Henry.