Mills Reports Building Funds

An additional $354,547 in subscriptions has been received by the Metropolitan Detroit Building Fund, according to Ben D. Mills of Bloomfield Hills, chairman of the group one major gifts committee.

Mills, 780 Vaughan, vice president of Ford Motor Co., said the progress of his group is satisfactory.

"We are about on target with our time schedule, but we still have 45 per cent of our goal to attain," he added. "This is certainly not the time to relax our efforts."

GROUP ONE WHICH seeks contributions from approximately 175 major firms to the 1961-65 MDBF program, has raised $1,497,253 against the $2,750,000 sought.

New donations reported by Mills include Allen Industries, $7,000; Automobile Club of Michigan, $25,000; Bohm Aluminum & Brass Corp., $5,725; Campbell-Ewald Co., $30,000; The Detroit Bank & Trust Co., $68,500; First Federal Savings & Loan Association of Detroit, $10,000; Hueck Manufacturing Co., $5,900; Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit, $82,200; Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line Co., $5,275; Peerless Cement Corp., $11,250; The Ryerson Foundation, Inc., $10,000; Rimmed-Mason Co., $19,330; Rockwell - Standard Corp., $30,000; Smith, Hinchman & Grylls Associates, Inc., $8,880 which was subscribed by R. F. Hastings, B. L. Miller and F. J. B. Sevald; and F. W. Woolworth Co., $5,000.

Donald F. Valley, general chairman of the MDBF campaign, said that the contributions of the Detroit area's top 17 firms or "Partner gifts" and those by group one had brought the total raised to date to $11,050,409, against the overall goal of $14,864,463.

RECENT PATTERN gifts received include Ex-Cell-O Corp., $72,610 and United States Rubber Co., $87,500.

The MDBF campaign is a united appeal for capital funds to provide additional and relocated hospital beds for Metropolitan Detroit.
