

Villagers Set Out With Tents in Tow

BEVERLY HILLS—Hold on to your pup tent, brother! Mom and dad may be tenting tonight! Four village couples we talked to last week had just returned from camps out and, according to a national magazine, hundreds more may be heading the "call of the not so wild."

The Gordon Andrus of Eastlady isolated themselves for a week with friends from Milwaukee on an island in the French River area near Georgian Bay.

The David H. Hicks of Vernon Drive chose a site near Interlochen for a week.

The Leo Linsenmeyers of Beverly and the Lewis Saxbys of Devotshire trekked to Pine River for their annual canoeing trip last weekend. The ladies "trained" at the BHAC by towing the "mini-now" class around the pool.

a week's visit near Oscoda at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Glass of Bloomfield Hills.

A cousin, Hollis Harriman, was the weekend guest of Gwendolyn, daughter of the Russell Harrimans of Woodhaven Lane.

The Charles Youngs of Leemore surprised Pete, 16, on July 10, by inviting 20 teens for a cookout and record hop on his birthday.

VALLEY WOODS—The Robert Colles of Westlady spent a week in Bayview with Mrs. Murray Calie.

Mrs. Hope G. Scott of Beverly who was first president of the Pontiac chapter of the National Secretaries Association was again hostess to 31 of the society at a box lunch picnic beside her pool last week.

Jody Tappero of Kenoway Court was hostess last week at a post-wedding party and miscellaneous affairs for 10 days at their home at 1000 E. Schiffer.

SOUTH BERKSHIRES — The James Bollings of Stellamar were the houseguests of the Waller Sudwicks for 10 days at their home on Upper Long Lake.

Former villagers Mrs. Maxine Pyles and her son George, now of Scottsdale, Ariz., are staying with Mrs. C. J. Caspar Jr. on Vernon on their month's visit here. Last week, she was guest of honor at a luncheon and pool party at Plum Hollow given by former neighbor, Mrs. A. E. Schiffer.

Barb Schiffer is just back from many of their friends were home to fete them and are leaving soon for a New York honeymoon, Miss Tappero, who was maid of honor at the couple's July 5 wedding in Detroit, chose an evening buffet for the occasion.

WEST BEVERLY — Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Staschell of 14 Mile Road recently announced the engagement of their daughter Jane to Milford Fuller Jr., son of the senior Milford Fullers of Birmingham. The couple have no immediate wedding plans.

Maternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. George Wilhoit who came from the east to visit for the month of June were here for the couple's announcement.

The Rudolph A. Bellans of Warwick are back in town after a trip to Niagara Falls, Gettysburg and other historical spots nearby.

The D. R. McRitchies' houseguests on Nixon Road for the week were the David McRitchies and Susan from Endwell, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kane of Mayfair Lane were a week away from home and children visiting friends and relatives near Omaha, Neb. They also stopped in Kalamao on their return.

The inseparables Dick Rosemont of Devonshire, Joe Mallore of Beverly and John Fitzgerald of Birmingham are spending still another summer camping at Mah-Go-Tah-See for two weeks.

EAST BEVERLY—Team mom Mrs. Joseph M. Holt Jr., of Lecherie gave a coffee July 11 for mothers of the 15 boys playing in the Little League Majors with the Wolverines of the Continental division. Plans were made for an all-day outing on Elizabeth Lake.

This present were Miss George Devere, Arthur Kacmarke, Laddie Prochaska, Herbert Shiloon, Floyd Taggart, Norris Host, George Gerdan and Albert Gatward.

Mrs. Louis P. Zetye of Pierce was hostess last Friday at a farewell coffee for Mrs. Stanley Zwolinski of Marguerite who moved to the east side while their new home's a-building.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Leber of Madeline have been visiting the William Grandfields and their three grandchildren in Colorado Springs the past two weeks.

The old mining town of Crippled Creek is having another boom, they said, since the Gold Bar Theater is restored. The Lebers saw "Under Two Flags" piece that's typical of the old-fashioned melodramas staged there.

Other side trips included a chuck wagon supper at the Flying W ranch and a visit to the Lovell Thomas home at Victor.

The Vincent Mengers of Lauderdale returned Saturday from their cottage near Cassville.

Mrs. Victor Reuther and Nancy of Rosemead got back to town a few days ago. Carol Whitney of Georgina was their guest for a
