Guest to Speak On China, Silver

Arthur Lake of Lake Jewelers will speak on "China, Silver and Crystal" at the June 5 business meeting of Eta Iota Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority.

The meeting will be held 8:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Carley, 16354 Beechwood. Co-hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. James S. Douglas and Mrs. Edward Gabriel.

Ritual of Jewels Ceremony will be taken by Mrs. Frank Marshall and Mrs. Thomas Whyte and installation of chapter officers will also be on the business agenda of the meeting.

Congratulations In Order

Congratulating AAUW member, Mrs. English at U of M, are Birmingham Mayor Katherine Blunt (center), new chairman of Florence Willett (left) and Birmingham Board of Education president, Kathryn School, on her award of an AAUW grant for education study this summer in the field of the AAUW also.

Career Teachers Feted at Tea

Mrs. Katherine Blunt is one of 10 scholarship winners from the Birmingham and Bloomfield School systems that were honored last Thursday at a tea in the Maple room at Stahelm High School. Career teachers with 10 years experience in Birmingham schools were honored also in the festivities noting Education Day in Michigan Week.

Guests were addressed by Mayor Willett, Mrs. Robert F. Kohl, president of Birmingham AAUW, and Otis M. Dickey, Birmingham school superintendent.

MR. DICKEY concluded his remarks with, "I still get a thrill when I see a master teacher at work... when I again realize the tremendous power a good teacher has to mold the mind, the body and the spirit of a child. Along with the influence of home and church, this is America at its best!"

AAUW is interested in education and funds raised from a successful used bookstore last fall and this spring's benefit fashion show have been used to provide scholarships of a local, national and international level. AAUW members are already busy collecting books for next fall's sale.

Children's Aid Honors Residents From Local Area

Two area residents were honored at the annual family dinner given by the board of directors of the Michigan Children's Aid Society May 25 at the Waldron Hotel, Pontiac.

Mrs. Ronald Ballantyne of Birmingham was introduced by Board President Mrs. Syver K. Tringstad who presided at the dinner. Also in attendance was Mrs. Henry S. Booth of Bloomfield Hills, present as an honorary member.

New board members were introduced at the dinner as well as several new foster parents. A skit was presented by two social workers for the agency.

Seven ages of Childhood

There are seven important ages in the growth of every child. Distinct ages, when big things happen to make the child a little more adult.

For her future pleasure and for her child's handsome heritage, every mother should keep the seven ages with beautiful lifetime portraits. Only portrait photography—produced by professional artists—can capture completely the color, the life, the spirit of a child.

Plan now — and budget for — the seven important portraits in your child's life. You'll always be glad you did.

Save them forever in Portraits

We are co-sponsors of the FM Radio program "Children's Corner". Listen to station WDTM-106.7 on your dial at 5:00 p.m. daily. Adults also enjoy this fine entertainment.
