

The Birmingham Eccentric

Thursday, June 1, 1961

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN

SECTION
D

Long ago it was said that freedom seldom is lost through the acts of an organized anti-freedom minority group of people; rather it is lost because of the apathy, the disinterest of the vast majority who listlessly allowed the few "to take over." Never in its history has the United States been so troubled with problems . . . or its freedom actively defended by so few of its citizens.

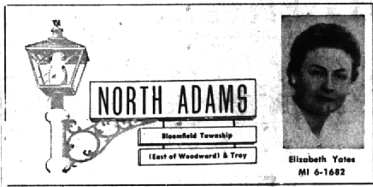

SALLY ANN LEASE

She's Engaged To James Park

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Lease of Bay Village, Ohio, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sally Ann, to James C. Park, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip M. Park of Alpena, Mich.

The bride-elect, who resides at 215 Berweys Road, Birmingham, is a graduate of the University of Michigan, where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority. She is now teaching English at Whyte E. Groves Junior and Senior High School.

Her fiancé is a U of M graduate. He will receive his master's degree there next month. During 1959-60 he spent a year in Venezuela as a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity, and is president of Delta Sigma Pi. A December wedding is planned.

Subdivision Residents To Hold Dinner Dance

Hickory Heights subdivision residents are looking forward to their semi-annual dinner dance to be held at the Orchard Lake Country Club on June 10. The Bill Gull Orchestra will furnish dinner and dance music.

The Russell Fishers, Jr. of Burnley Drive are the dance committee chairman and ticket chairman in Mrs. James Herbst of Rock Spring Drive.

Many in the area will be entertained at cocktail parties before leaving for the country club. Among the hosts will be the Charles Booths of Orchard Hill Drive, the Henry Whitings of Orchard Hill Drive, the Eugene Stearns of Tarry Lane, the Charles Gilberts of Top View Drive and lage on Stylus Lake, near West Branch, Mich.

The Russell Fishers, Jr. will be entertaining relatives at a dinner party in their Burnley Drive home on Saturday evening. Their guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fisher, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. William Plant, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fisher of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fisher of Lansing.

Last weekend to Toledo and were houseguests of the John Galbraiths, college friends from the University of Michigan.

Newcomers to Rock Spring Road are the Anthony Zars of Wauwatosa, Wis. They moved here last November with their two children, Mark, 3, and Mary Ellen, 1.

May has been a busy month for the Rutgers Van Brunts of Top View Court. The first week was spent in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., sight-seeing and swimming, before meeting 84 couples from different parts of the country at an annual business sales conference at the Gulf Ocean Mile Hotel for five days.

The Don Frankmans and sons, Donnie and Johnnie, of Upton Circle, moved here last week. The vacation this year and journeyed to Washington, D. C. and Williamsport, Pa.

The vacation was an educational trip for the boys before they leave Birmingham next month to make their home near Hollywood, Calif. Frankman is affiliated with Campbell-Ewald Co. and was promoted to associate TV production director on commercial film production.

Mrs. Fred E. Biebow of North Adams Road and Bernard Pastack of Detroit flew to Toronto, Can., on Friday for the long Memorial Day weekend. They were entertained by friends Mr. and Mrs. Williams A. Walkover of Baby Point Road.

The Robert Klores of Lanerang Drive are proud owners of a brand new turquoise fiberglass swimming pool. Since it was installed in their garden a week ago, they have had "wild life" dropping in on them, with a splash, at all hours of the night.

On Thursday morning before leaving for Derby Junior High their son Ricky retrieved a rabbit who had been swimming for hours, fed it and sent it on its way. The Klores are beginning to find life just isn't the same when you have a swimmin' hole!

St. Stephens Episcopal Church on North Adams Road will hold their first summer Bible school. Classes will begin on June 19 for a two-week period and will be from 3 to 11:45 a. m. on weekdays. Included in the program will be Bible study, crafts and games. All children in the North Adams area are welcome. For further information call Mrs. William Dewey of Charwood Drive, chairman of the Bible school.

Presidents' Day

The eighth annual Presidents' Day, sponsored by the Women's Committee of United Community Services, will be held June 3 at the Veterans Memorial Building. Among those working on arrangements from this area are Mesdames Martin Butzel, Karlton Pierce, Worth Kramer and Don Hunter.

Eastover PTO Plans Summer Day Camp

The Eastover Summer Day Camp, sponsored by the Eastover PTO for all children from kindergarten through sixth grades in the North Adams area. A junior program for present kindergarden, first and second grade children and a senior program for children now in third through sixth grades is being offered.

Senior children attend from 9 a. m. to 2:30 p. m. Activities will include individual and recreational sports such as swimming, tumbling, gymnastics, archery, riflery, flycasting and table tennis. The team sports of softball, volleyball and soccer also will be offered.

Also included are arts and crafts, hobbies, nature and campcraft, field trips, hikes and sports clinics.

An overnight campout is planned for each session for the seniors and an "honor camp" will be held on July 27 and 28 for exceptional campers of either session.

Planning and directing the program will be Elaine Edbanks, a graduate of Central Michigan University. Miss Edbanks has had two years teaching experience, is physical education instructor for Hickory Grove, Pine Lake and Vaughn Schools, has had years' experience in recreation programs.

Assisting her will be Robert Spence who has a masters degree in education from Michigan State University. He has taught in the Pontiac School System for four years and has had three years experience in resident camps.

For further information, parents may call day camp Chairman, Mrs. James Huggins of Westchester Road or her assistant, Mrs. Robert Montgomery of Greenrose road. No enrollments will be accepted after today, if the lists are filled.
