

Hawaiian Atmosphere Highlights Pool Party

FRANKLIN—Culminating a year of consistently entertaining monthly parties, the Couples Club will top it off by taking the plunge with a Luau at the pool of Mr. and Mrs. William Lambert on Vachon drive on June 9.

Musicians, Hawaiian skirts and snorkels are given satirical priority, although less optimistic members are withholding furs and woolsies from summer storage.

Dispensing with the usual formalities of an annual election which characterizes less free-wheeling groups, the Couples Club simply find someone they can look up to be treasurer and let it go at that. Someone like six foot four John Porter will do.

The Franklin branch of the Women's National Park and Garden association elected Mrs. Robert Swift as their new president recently.

Among the other officers were Mrs. J. A. Greeting, first vice president; Mrs. George B. Catlin, sec-

Church Groups Plan June Meetings

FRANKLIN—Though there will be no general meeting in June of the Women's Society for Christian Service for the Franklin Community Church, it was announced that Mrs. Frank Young was elected to replace Mrs. R. E. Gollig as secretary.

The Esther Circle will meet June 8 at the home of Mrs. Ludwig Tischer, 32710 Redfern Drive, for a planned potluck.

ON JUNE 13, the Mary-Martha Circle will conclude the year's activities with a potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. H. T. Rex, 31097 McKinney Drive, starting at 12:30 p.m.

Thesaurus day, the Rebecca Circle will have an outdoor luncheon at the home of Mrs. Edward Green, 26585 Woodlawn Road.

Also, the Ruth Circle will meet at the home of E. W. Swallow, 32920 Brandingham, for a 12:30 luncheon and a book review on the story of Ruth from "The Women of the Bible".

There will be no meeting of the Sarah Circle in June.

and vice president; Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, recording secretary; Mrs. Cameron Buchanan, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Robert Cook, treasurer.

Retiring president Mrs. Roy Nelson will entertain members who have served with her on this year's board of directors at a luncheon June 5.

"Husbands will be the special guests for an evening potluck dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Rowse on Normandy, June 12, starting at 6:30 p.m.

As usual, the ladies have entered the distaff side with plans to have Art Thomsen of Wood Creek Farms show his thrilling movies documenting his bear hunting trip to Alaska several years ago.

It's a busy, coming and going world these days and not many have taken the trouble to notice the lonely toils of octogenarian Bert Wood.

A fastidious and prideful man, he has spent many hours clearing away the unsightly conditions at the corner of Carol and Franklin Road. Little by little the transition has taken place, making Franklin a lovelier place to live in and to pass through.

Without compensation, he has moved rocks and underbrush, often working until weariness forces him to stop.

We salute this singular senior citizen.

About 12 Franklin boy scouts who have passed their first class rank or earned three merit badges this year will treat their dads to a canoe trip down the Manistee River this weekend. Due in Grayling at 9 a.m. Saturday, they will head downstream for an over-night campout.

The George Huffmans of scenic Road haven't heard yet what their grandson's name is. But, via Red Cross they learned that daughter Ruthann, Mrs. David Phillips, gave birth to a son last Thursday. The Phillips are living near Venice at the Air Force base.

Franklin Village Players will convene at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Van Dyke on Franklin Road this Friday evening to elect three new board members and hear annual reports.

Justifiably jubilant over the way more than 700 people enjoyed their recent production, "Teahouse of the August Moon—Players will keep the light touch to finish their slight season. A gay nineties program has been prepared which will offer a pantomime on the "Shooting of Dan McGrew" with a can-can routine and barber shop quartet singing.

A Rose Tour is scheduled for the members of the Franklin Garden Club on June 15. Meeting at the Mibelech gardens, 14300 Tooper near 8 Mile Road at 6:30 p.m., the group will wind up at Circa's for refreshments. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Carl Nepper before June 11.

WOOD CREEK FARMS—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Phillips of Millbrook will host nearly 60 guests for a farewell dinner Friday night, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Shaw, retiring headmaster of Detroit Country Day School.

Hong Kong Fashions Will Be Featured.

FRANKLIN—A special trunk-showing of the Hong Kong fashions designed by Swee Lo will be held at the Fargi Fram's on Franklin Road this Friday, from 2 to 5 p.m.

Although the styles will be oriental in fabric only, the signs feature hand-bending. Quality brocades and silks characterize elegance with an emphasis on American detail.

Mrs. Franzel spent several months working with Swee Lo last year in Hong Kong. Together they have created an East-meets-West feeling for the fashion world.

The first hydroelectric plant in the United States was built in Grand Rapids in 1881.
